(TEXAS RYND — ..... WARNER)

Portland papers this week continue to give encouraging news regarding early construction work on the Harriman railroad lines into central Oregon. Surveying parties are in the field from the end of the Corvallis & Eastern and also in the Deschutes Canyon. The line through this part of the country will not need any more preliminary work.

The announcement in the Baker City Democrat last week that Pres. Eccles of the Sumpter Valley Railroad and others would make a trip to Burns immediately seems to have been a little "previous" as Mr. Eccles has not yet put in an appearance. However, it is understood that the party was delayed and that the trip will be made in a short time.

Politics may be rotten in Oregon but the mixup over in Idaho is a fright. Dubois has one part of the democratic party and the antis the other. Each have nominated a ticket and are fighting in court to see which shall be recognized and placed upon the ballot. The recent republican state convention was packed and that party is in a fight. Gov. Gooding is urging a direct primary law as a result.

COUNTY COURT ADJOURNS.

County court adjourned for the September term last Saturday. The following business was transacted after we had gone to press and not reported in our last issue:

R. W. Hamilton awarded contract for keeping county poor for ensuing year.

Petition of H. M. Horton and others for a county road from north of Burns up by Rock Springs. Horton & Sayer mill and down Spring creek to a point on the Harney and Grant county lines was ordered viewed.

No bond or satisfactory evidence of posting the notices having been filed the petition of J. E. H. Eichner and others for a county road was continued for the term.

Road viewers ordered to locate and view out the county road petitioned for by VanderVoor and Keys and others.

Same order for the McMullen road.

Report of viewers on the Weaver Springs, J. M. Burgard and Jas. Hill road continued for the term.

Petition of C. A. Haines and others for a county road from Narrows to Wagontire was denied.

H. B. Mace appointed as a member of the county road viewers to serve for the Horton & Sayer mill road.

Final settlement with Sam Mollenhead, county clerk, having been continued from the July term, was made and his accounts found correct.

Dr. W. L. Marsden awarded contract for medical attendance of county poor for a year.

Report of road viewers on road petitioned for by M. Fenwick and others read and all damages having been properly adjusted the petition was granted and road master ordered to open said road without unnecessarily delay and place it in condition for public travel.

Ordered that Johnson & Hoover file necessary bond to be approved by the clerk before granting them a liquor license.

Road Master Barnes given $1000 for road purposes.

MURDER IN MALHEUR COUNTY.

Sheriff Robt. Odell of Malheur county spent yesterday in this city. He came over to get the prisoner, Robt. Right, who is wanted over there for shooting at a train last spring.

Mr. Odell told a representative of The Times-Herald that he was being worked over time as last Friday a serious cutting affray took place at Jordan valley when a man named Silvius stabbed a man by the name of Lee. The latter was not killed outright but he received word before leaving Vale that Lee could not recover from the wounds.

Thursday he received a 'phone message to the effect that Wisener had shot and killed Ben Dull at Juntura. It seems the dead man and another had been in partnership, they had a misunderstanding and the partnership was dissolved. The partner had disposed of his personal property to various neighbors, selling a wagon to Wisener. Dull went to Wisener's place and claimed the neck yoke which was the cause of the trouble.

Mr. Odell left this morning with his prisoner on the Burns-Vale stage.

STOCKMEN DON'T LIKE NEW PLAN.

Some of the cattlemen of Crook county are up in arms over the intention, as announced in the Portland papers several weeks ago, to withdraw cattle buyers from the breeding grounds and ranges of this state. Cattlemen, sheepmen and hog raisers make common cause in arguing that such a move would not be made unless it redounded to the buyers' advantage, and a number of meat packers in the Crooked river and Prairie valleys have quietly moved out to join another shipping point on the line unless said move be forced upon them at a price agreed upon with the packers' representatives in advance.

Interviews are numerous wherein Crook county stockmen have sent their cattle or sheep to market without any fixed and fast price agreed upon in advance.

Even if the packers intend to be fair and square, the cattlemen argue, they will be governed entirely by circumstances, often times beyond their control, which, unless the matter is put in black and white in advance, will result in a loss to the seller. Rather than accept any old price under the new plan, growers assert they will keep their stock at home until a definite sum is agreed upon.—Prineville Journal.

IT SEEMS WOULD BE AS WELL

Selo, with a population of a few hundred, is pushing the way for larger Oregon towns. An enthusiastic and liberated fair association was formed there this week that, according to reports, reflected infinite credit on the place and its people. The association has purchased and fenced seven grounds. A display of farm products will be one of the features. Agricultural products and with such other exhibitions and amusements as the Governor of the state and others addressed the crowd on the opening day. 19 Willys-Overlands and a staff of farm workers held a well attended farmers' institute each evening. Mr. O'Brien and other high officials of the Harriman railroads were visitors on Thursday.

The self-help evinced in these arrangements is unparalleled, credulous as Selo and Selo people. The farmers were allowed the fair and save there expert horses, cows and the like, and were determined to have better animals of their own. There are men who have better plans than they have been practicing, but of how it was done, and were fully determined to do the same for themselves. Even who attended the farmers' institute drank in new ideas and went back to the farm determined to apply them. It is but an instance to be stimulated by the fact known, and the Selo fair did this in part splendidly. The best help and the best things come to those who help themselves.—Journal.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Burns Athletic Club will move into new quarters this afternoon. The boys are going to have a nice, comfortable place.

Battling Nelson defeated Joe Gans in a prize fight at San Francisco Wednesday. The fight lasted 21 rounds and the negro was given up the desire to be champion light weight fighter.

C. W. Drinkwater arrived here yesterday morning. He has resigned his position with the Blue Mt. Rapid Transit Line and will go to Drewsey where he will enter the Porter, Miller & Sitz mercantile establishment.

A car load of New Moline wagons just in at C. R. Veazey's. These are the best and cheapest wagons in the country. Also the Velie buggies, and Henney hacks. Call and get prices. They are bought for cash, and no middle man's profits are counted in.

Having come on a wheel from Seattle, Washington, a young man whose name could not be learned, passed through this place the first of the week, en route to Burns. He carries a roll of blankets weighing perhaps 75 pounds, which is strapped on the handle bars. He says he has made this trip without an accident—Prairie City Miner.

COUNTY FAIR DESERVES ATTENTION.

Should Have the Active Support of All—Everybody Has Interest to be Here.

The Times-Herald hopes that the farmers and stock raisers will make special effort to have creditable displays for the annual fair the last week in this month. It is very important, now the very best that Harney county has produced this dry season so it will help much toward the development of our resources. As will be noted in the next issue of this paper, Secretary Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural College will visit our Oregon county fair and the Fair Association has extended his party an invitation to be here during the fair.

The party includes the following. In addition to President Kerr, Professor H. D. Scudder, of the department of entomology of the State Agricultural College, Professor William Jasper Kinkaid, Homesteading expert, in charge of farming, of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., Mr. Young, Irrigation expert, of the Department of Agriculture and in charge of irrigation work in Oregon, and W. A. Jones, secretary to President Kerr.

It is the purpose of these specialists not only to show irrigation, but the crops for which the different districts are particularly adapted. A complete investigation of agricultural conditions in Eastern Oregon will be made, and data collected by whom the visitors will be enabled to determine the extent to which it is desired to and feasible to undertake experimental work and establish substations of the Agricultural College. The work and quality of the land, climatic conditions, precipitation and the topographic features, pre-dominate will be observed.

Local people should take an interest in this matter and by their presence assure that farm people will be in attendance. Let us remember this is our fair and encourage the success of those who have undertaken experimenting and farming they are served much annoyance and considerable expense. Remember this is your fair and you should do your best to make it a success.

Miss Lee Robinson cancelled her contract to teach the school up the river and expects to take the school at Diamond.

The Times-Herald office has just received the finest assortment of stationery it has ever had. Its patrons will have the very best in that line as they always have had. When in need of commercial printing of any nature phone in and see us.
