They will be initiated followed by a social meeting of Burns Chapter O. E. S. next Monday evening, Oct. 12.

If you can't buy lumber and pickets satisfactory from Horton, Purrrington or Roy Bunyard, see Chas. H. Davis at Harney and get a bargain. Some grain yet for sale.

M. A. Woodruff of Juntura, Malheur county, has been in this city for several days. Mr. Woodruff is a breeder of Durham cattle and brought over several head of registered yearling bulls with three cows which he will sell to local cattle men. His bunch of cattle was much admired during the fair by all who visited them, as they are the finest we have ever seen. He has already disposed of seven head and we have no doubt he will have no trouble in disposing of the entire lot as soon as stockmen get to see them.

Mr. Lowe's Madison Square Theatre Co. left here Thursday morning for Prineville where they will play all next week. The company was very satisfactory here and will be royally received upon their next visit. Among the strong productions by this company "The Clay Baker" stands out as the best play ever produced in Burns. Mr. Mong is certainly an artist and made good in this bill. "Till Death Do Us Part" was another strong play, but it does not compare with "The Clay Baker."

Painting and paper hanging—A. Horton.

A. Venator came in from his ranch Thursday.

The public library is again open three days in each week as formerly.

J. E. Sizemore has been over from his Warm Springs farm this week.

Meadames Reed & Johnson have received a consignment of fall and winter hats and have a large order now on the way.

A private letter from Portland states that Chas. Anderson, who recently underwent a serious operation, is getting along fine and will soon be able to return home.

Alex Mackintosh, the Crook county sheepman, passed through this city last week with a large flock of sheep which he was trailing to railroad points to the east for shipment.

Judge Weatherford, of Albany, is among the outside attorneys attending circuit court. He is defending Geo. S. Miller who has been indicted on several counts charged with larceny of stock.

WANTED—About 5000 head of good, young breeding ewes. Address, giving ages, price, etc., The American Land & Livestock Company, Denio Oregon, also same care of the First National Bank, Burns, Oregon.

JAMES E. ROUNSEVILLE, Manager.

The regular October apportionment of school funds, which should have been made last Monday, has been delayed on account of Supt. Hamilton not receiving the proper supplies on which to make the orders. These supplies have been delayed and as soon as received the matter will be attended to.

MARRIED—At the Anderson hotel in this city yesterday, Oct. 9, George Simmons and Miss Cathleen Gillen, Rev. A. J. Irwin performing the ceremony. The wedding was very quiet, only the necessary witnesses being present. The friends of the couple join The Times-Herald in well wishes. We understand Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will make their home at Narrows.

JIM MAHON.

V. Cawfield left Thursday for his home in Happy Valley after seeing his family comfortably domiciled in the Dr. Brown residence in this city for the winter.

Dr. Carl Griffith returned home Monday from a visit to his mother at Salem. He reports his mother in very poor health and was sorry that it was necessary to hurry back here.

R. J. Williams and son Fred were over from their Silver creek home a few days this week. Fred will leave the first of next week for Portland where he will attend school this winter.

C. A. Keaton, of Chicago, spent several days here this week. Mr. Keaton owns the Shaw farms in this vicinity and makes one trip annually to look after his interests. He hasn't much hope of Mr. Harriman doing anything in the line of railroad building, but has great faith in Hill. We expect to have a road by each of the gentlemen into the Harney country.

A petition asking that the disbarment proceedings against M. R. Biggs by the Oregon Bar Association be quashed this week and will be sent to the Association loaded with signatures and acted upon at its next session in Portland. A significant fact is that Bar Association men took the petition around. If this fact and the names of nearly everybody in town counts for anything, the proceedings will be dismissed, as they ought to be.—Prineville Review.

DIED—At the home of his son in this city last night, Frank Wiseman, aged 79 years. The old gentleman came over to this place from John Day last year to make his home with his son. He was a shoemaker by trade and worked a short time at the bench after coming here but his son finally induced him to give up his work. Mr. Wiseman had been confined to his bed about a month and last night suffered an attack of heart failure which proved fatal. His wife died at John Day about two years ago. He leaves three sons and three daughters: F. L. Wiseman and Mrs. Al Solinger of this city, one daughter in British Columbia, one in California, a son in Kansas and another in Oklahoma. Relatives start with the body this afternoon for Canyon City where he will be laid beside his wife.

Miss Ada Neal is teaching the school at Van.

FOR SALE—320 acres of hay land. Inquire at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Buchanan were guests of friends in this city this week.

Miss Helene Swain began the fall term of school on Sage Hen last Monday.

McGowan & Nichols have customers for relinquishments. See them if you want to buy or sell.

S. A. Vest, one of our prosperous sheep raisers and former stock inspector spent several days in this city this week.

J. E. Roberts of Boise, editor of the Idaho Unionist, made a stop-over-between-trains visit in North Powder Saturday night with his oldest sister, Mrs. Grace, whom he had not seen in the past three years.—North Powder News.

Sheriff Richardson, who recently returned from Salem bringing back Messrs. Pollard, Smith and Miller from the penitentiary to testify as witnesses in cases before the circuit court, says he saw Frank Miller in Portland and that he was having a great time. Lon says that Frank spent a good portion of his time at the dinner table and the last seen of him he had a whole hind quarter of beef before him preparing to have a square meal.

TEACHERS' ANNUAL INSTITUTE.

Supt. Hamilton is down from Harney where he has been teaching for the past three weeks. He states that the annual institute will be held in this city on November 18, 19 and 20.

As yet the program has not been formulated, but among the outside educators and instructors to be present is Prof. L. R. Alderman, one of the faculty of the state university. Supt. Hamilton is also considering the advisability of holding a convention of the district school boards in connection with the institute. This, however, has not been definitely decided, but is certainly a good idea if directors can be induced to attend.

A Bank for All the People

It is not a particular class of people for which this bank was organized. It is not here for the receiving of certain amounts on deposit as the minimum. It is a bank for all the people and it is conducted in the interest of those people, and not for the accommodation of certain individuals.

We want you to feel at home with us. We want you to come in whenever you can and take advantage of all the facilities we have to offer. But—if you do not find it convenient to come to the bank, then use the mails for the transacting of your business. Correspondence receives careful attention and your deposit will be just as well handled as it would be if you came to the bank personally.

Now is the best time to begin saving by opening an account with us—it is never too late, as you are never too old to practice thrift.
