The people of this section now have an opportunity to do something that will be of real benefit to Harney county. On the first page of this issue is an article regarding the experiment farm work in which President Kerr of the O. A. C. has succeeded in interesting the government.

The Times-Herald will take the liberty to announce that the Burns Athletic Club rooms are at the disposal of the business men of Burns any evening during this month for the purpose of meeting to discuss this matter.

Governor Chamberlain seems to have made good at Washington and was hailed as "Senator to be" by President Roosevelt the other day.

Senator Burns has had the President send the name of John C. Young as private secretary, to the senate as postmaster at Portland.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE IN BRIEF.

Financial condition of nation at present is excellent.

Under the interstate clause of the constitution the United States has complete and permanent right to control all agencies of interstate commerce.

Rates must be made as low as compatible with giving proper returns to the shareholders and all employees.

Believes that there should be a premium upon individual initiative and capacity.

Labor should share in the profits of the manufacturer and the farmer should own his own land and not be a slave to the mortgage.

Dealing with courts, believes that salaries of our judges are entirely inadequate; decries attacks on courts when same are not based in fact; urges courts to weigh more carefully the effect of temporary and permanent restraining orders.

Forests form the first and most important factor in the conservation of natural resources and it is the plain duty of the country to protect them before it is too late.

Supports the contentions of those interested in inland water ways and urges legislation in their cause.

Improvement of rivers should not be left in the hands of army engineers whose training does not fit them for such work.

Amendment ruling that there shall be no detail from the secret service for other than government work declared favorable only to criminals.

Again recommends that postal saving banks will be beneficial for the people.

Advocates the immediate admission of New Mexico and Arizona as states.

Advocates the extension of the ocean mail act of 1891 and better Transpacific mail lines.

Briefly praises the work of the engineers in charge of the Panama canal and declares that the work is being done with speed and efficiency. The army the navy and our island possessions are briefly dealt with along lines of the president's first message to the Sixtieth congress, first half of session.

ODD FELLOWS TO BUILD.

Harney Lodge, No. 77, I. O. O. F. of this place has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: A. K. Richardson, N. G.; F. A. Cole, V. G.; Byron Terrill, secy.; H. M. Horton, treasurer. The lodge has made arrangements to begin the erection of a handsome stone structure 50x100 feet two stories on its lots on Main St.

The first floor will be one of the most desirable store room or business location in Burns and will be fitted up with modern plate glass front. The second floor will be arranged not only for a well appointed, large lodge room for the use of the Odd Fellows, Encampment and Rebekah Degrees, but will also have a banquet hall, kitchen and other conveniences.

The matter of financing and other matters incident to the building is now in the hands of the trustees of the lodge and they will begin active work immediately following the holidays.
