January Clearance Sale
This means much to you. No store in this locality so fearlessly cuts prices as do we when the proper time arrives. We are not going to carry over any winter goods—we have better use for the money.....
We are going to clear the store of every remnant, every odd and end, every broken line, every slow seller.

HOW? CUT PRICES!
Bargains every day. Big Bargains! The biggest bargains, quality for quality, that you'll find in this country. But why should we talk on and on—come to the store and see for yourself.

COUNTY COURT.
The following business was transacted by the County Court before adjourning and after we had gone to press last issue: The petition of J. W. Buchanan and 19 others for a county road was continued for the term.
Petition of J. M. McMullen and 32 others for a county road continued for the term.
The Times-Herald was again designated as the county official paper for the year 1909.
Order allowing the sheriff a deputy in the southern part of the county was revoked, the court considering he needed no deputy in that section.
Hugh Harris was again appointed fruit inspector.
Jap McKinnon appointed as one of the board of road viewers.
John Robinson appointed stock inspector.
J. T. Barnes re-appointed road master of the first district.
Sidney Comegys appointed

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
At a meeting of the members and friends of the First Presbyterian Church of Burns, Oregon, January 8, 1909, the undersigned committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect and condolence on the death of our beloved sister, Amy Byrd.
Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His Allwise Providence to remove from our midst on the third day of January, 1909, Mrs. Amy Byrd, who was a charter member of the First Presbyterian Church of Burns, Oregon. She had been a resident of Burns since 1883.
Resolved, That in the death of Sister Byrd this church has suffered the loss of one of its most faithful members, and the community one of its most worthy and most estimable characters. A great sorrow has overshadowed us—it descends upon the church like a funeral pall; it saddens the brethren who shall not see her face again until they ascend where she is.
Resolved, That her many virtues have endeared her to the community at large, and many, very many; sorrow at her decease. "The angels welcome with joyous acclaims the good, the pure and benevolent as they enter eternity's portals." All of Sister Byrd's tender charities, womanly unselfishness, domestic fidelity and motherly solicitude will be rewarded by Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto Me." May her children, relatives and friends strive to emulate her sterling qualities that they may, when death comes, realize, as she now does, the beneficent results of a life of faith, hope and love. Be it Further resolved, That we extend to her husband and family our heartfelt sympathy, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this church, and a copy presented to the bereaved family

PHOEBE GEARY,
DOROTHY IRWIN.

Number 2.
In The Twelfth Century
In Venice the "Banco" was organized, the word meaning bench, to give the people a central point where notes might be made, money borrowed and deposited for safe-keeping or for transfer to distant points.
The present day bank came into existence in 1649, when the present Bank of England was established in London.
Primitive banking was simple, the advantages given the people were few. Banking today is also simple but the people receive many benefits not dreamed of in its early history.
Banks are organized by several men putting their money together in the shape of bank stock and opening a place for business.
These men not only put their money into business, they also include their standing. Thus the bank is stronger than any one of them; as strong as all of them together.
Every bank is a benefit to the community. It facilities business, gives the people a place to keep their active and surplus funds, and each dollar in the community does more work because the bank exists.
This bank is a material advantage to the public—to each man and woman in particular. We seek the opportunity to demonstrate the benefit of our service to YOU.
