

OUR FIXED POLICY

The established policy of this bank is to carry a large cash reserve, be satisfied with reasonable earnings upon our investment and to sacrifice profits for the safety of depositors.

We do an old fashioned banking business. The matter contained in our advertisements will be facts, easily substantiated as such, and not idle phrases, meaningless to the intelligent, but intended to deceive.

UNDER THIS POLICY

We invite the banking business of all those who desire to carry bank accounts. It matters not what your occupation may be or how limited your means, this bank will welcome an account from you, cheerfully extending to all, regardless of the size of your account the same courteous and satisfactory service.

The Fixed policy of the First National Bank of Burns as it appears in their advertising space this week is worthy of careful reading and consideration by those interested in banking as it contains a clear, concise statement of their banking policy.

The Boise Capital News, of Boise, has offered a prize for the best definition of the word "booster." It would be an easy matter for a Harney county contestant to give a good definition as they can see a practical demonstration of the word every day.

Homer and Nollie Reed have purchased the City Drug Store from H. M. Horton and took charge Tuesday morning. The boys have bought a fine business and their friends wish them success. Both have lived here since childhood and have always been industrious, steady boys bearing good names. Dr. Horton has been in the drug business for many years but has such varied interests that he found it necessary to dispose of this business in order to give his other affairs more attention.

DIED—At her home in Harney, Oregon, April 30 at 8 p. m., Mrs. Lottie M. Goodlow, wife of Ross C. Goodlow. Mrs. Goodlow was born in Baker county, Oregon, 23 years ago. She was taken sick about three weeks ago with typhoid fever, but was thought by her friends and physician to be improving, but the silent messenger came suddenly and called her to her reward where there will be no more sorrow or trouble, to await the coming of her loved ones. She leaves a husband, two little boys, Dale Clifford aged two and one-half years and Homer aged 7 months, to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. She also leaves a mother, two sisters, two brothers, in Baker county, Oregon, one sister in Kentucky and one brother in Harney, with many friends in both Baker and Harney counties. Funeral arrangements will not be made until distant relatives are heard from. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.
