Building paper and roofing at Evenger's.

Isaac Forter is a business visitor from Silver creek.

Kemp Hardisty was down from Trout Creek yesterday.

Mrs. Robt. Reed is up from Lawen this week on a visit to her relatives.

James Smith has a new stock of shoes of various kinds and styles.

C. H. Voegtly is going to put up a big fireproof buggy warehouse in his field south of town.

C. H. Leonard and family now occupy the W. A. Gowan residence recently vacated by G. A. Embold and wife.

The stock books of the Harney Valley Oil & Gas Company are now open and J. C. Turney is ready and willing to write you a block of this stock.

C. C. Lundy is reported as being quite seriously ill at his home in this city. He has been confined to his bed for several weeks and does not seem to improve.

A. Schenk wants 5000 coyote and bob-cat hides. Will pay $2 each for all with heads and claws complete. Skins must be prime and bring this price. Also buys other hides and furs.

Miss Winnie Brown has begun her apprenticeship in the composing room of this great religious weekly. The young lady has shown aptness and will make a good type setter.

FOR SALE—Household goods consisting of kitchen furniture and cooking utensils, also farm machinery, one good 3 1/2 wagon, good two-seated hack, etc.—F. Miller, Burns, Oregon.

It seems some have the impression that since Chas. Wilson has leased a farm he is going to quit the blacksmith business. This is not the case. Mr. Wilson is going to continue to work at the shop.

M. L. Lewis informs us that he will soon cut up 40 or 60 acres of his homestead at the springs near the city limits into 1, 2 1/2 and 3 acre tracts and dispose of them in terms to suit the purchaser. This is a very desirable residence locality and one may secure a permanent water supply from the spring for irrigation purposes. This is above the frost line and a place where fruit, berries and garden may be successfully grown.

Dr. W. L. Marsden informs us that he has taken Dr. C. C. Griffith as a partner. Dr. Griffith has been Dr. Marsden's assistant a year and he has made good. He has made many warm personal friends and professionally he has proven entirely satisfactory in every respect. He is an energetic young man, wedded to his profession and is bound to be a success. His many friends are pleased to learn of his advancement to partner and congratulate him.

Work guaranteed Salisbury's.

Death called one of Harney county's highly respected pioneer citizens Thursday, June 3, and yesterday the mortal remains of our old friend, M. V. Smith was laid to rest in the Burns cemetery by loving hands who honored him. A short service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis, being conducted by Dr. L. E. Hibbard. Mr. Smith had been failing in health for several months and his death was not unexpected. He had been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Scott Hayes, for some time and she had been giving him the best of care. It was doubly hard for his daughter as she had but recently lost a sister. Mr. Smith was born in the state of Maine Jan. 10 1833. He came to the coast in the early fifties and took up mining in California, later he began farming in the same state. He followed this occupation together with gardening, fruit raising and freighting until 1886 when he came to this country and settled first on Silver Creek where he engaged in the stock business, later going to Lawen where he had lived since 1892. He was first married in California on Jan. 28, 1864 and to this union two children were born, Othniel, deceased, and Izora, wife of Scott Hayes. In August 1876, his first wife died. He was married again in 1876 and two children were born to this second marriage, Ada L. Miller, who died March 20, this year, and Otto V. who is now in California. Deceased was one of our honored pioneers who leaves many warm friends to mourn him. The sympathy of a large circle of friends goes out to his daughter, Mrs. Hayes, in her sorrow.

The Man who Remains Small.

Business success contains no black art—there is nothing mysterious about it. Men do not make fortunes by what is called luck. Business success is attained by legitimate methods, at the command of everyone. One secret of making money is money at your command.

Opportunities come unannounced. To profit by an opportunity requires quick acceptance after you are satisfied of its value upon investigation.

The successful business men are invariably men who do business with a bank, they are regular customers.

Without a bank's service and help, man remains small in a business way. He lacks a valuable business aid every day and at unexpected times.

We wish you success in your business and invite you to accept our service to further your interests.

A Savings Bank Department is a feature of this Bank, in which interest at the rate of four per cent per annum is allowed.
