E. E. Purrington and wife were down from the mill during the week, returning again yesterday. Mr. Purrington says he will have a new planer installed next week to replace the one destroyed by the recent fire and will soon be ready to furnish his customers with any kind of surfaced lumber. He has an abundance of rough lumber now on hand.

Friends in this city received invitations the first of the week to the marriage of Mr. A. O. Faulkner to Miss Caroline McConahy on Wednesday, July 14 at Van Wert, Ohio. Mr. Faulkner and bride expect to arrive home about August 10. Mr. Faulkner has been located in this city for the past two years and has made many friends who join The Times-Herald in extending hearty congratulations.

A quiet little wedding took place at the Presbyterian parsonage Sunday afternoon, July 11th at 3 o'clock when Mr. Ralph Hibbard and Miss Reta Jennings were united in marriage, Rev. A. J. Irwin performing the ceremony. Both the young people are well known in this part of the county. The Times-Herald joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life. M. Valerius, representing the Harney county Oil and Gas company, was in Ontario Monday. He says the Harney people expect to begin actual work within thirty days or so, and he feels certain they will get good gas showings if not oil. Mr. Valerius is from Sapulpa, Okla., and became interested in Harney county only this spring. He was on his way to Spokane and will return about the first of August.—Ontario Optimist.

Regular preaching services will be held at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday, July 18th, both morning and evening. Morning service at 11 o'clock and the theme of the morning will be "Watching With Christ." The evening service will be at 8 o'clock and the subject for the evening discourse will be "Seeking the Lost." The pastor trusts that no one will absent himself from these services because of the warm weather.

Ray Young, the civil engineer who was the chief draftsman during the survey of the Oregon Eastern railroad through here and was in Burns for several months during that time, arrived in this city Monday. He spent but one day here and said he was going through to Lakeview. Mr. Young is still with the Short Line with headquarters in Salt Lake. He did not state his business here, but it was evidently in connection with the railroad work.

EIGHT TOWNSHIPS SURVEYED. United States Land Office, July 16, 1909.

Notice is hereby given that the following townships have been surveyed, and the official plats of survey will be filed in this office August 23, 1909. Township 34 South, Range 29 East

Table with 3 columns: Township, Range, Section. Rows: 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50.

This office will be prepared to receive applications for the entry of lands in the above named township on and after the said 23rd day of August, 1909.

Wm. Farre, Register. Frank Davey, Receiver.

Four car loads consisting of buggies, wagons, plows, harrows farm machinery, barb wire and nails now en route. See C. H. Voegtly for prices.

HORSES RECOVERED.

All the horses known to have been stolen recently on Silver Creek have been recovered, but the men accused of the theft have not been caught. The animals belonging to W. C. Cecil were found on the range but the stock belonging to W. L. Best had been disposed of to Wm. Welch at Izee. It seems two strangers sold Mr. Welch nine head of horses for $400, but eight head belonged to Mr. Best. It is reported the men went to Canyon City thence out to the railroad, claiming they had to be in Pendleton at once.

A NEAT CHURCH.

The writer paid a visit to the local Catholic church one day this week and found a wonderful transformation. Instead of the rough stone walls greeting one upon entrance, it shows a nicely plastered and ornamented wall together with appropriate hangings. The walls have been nicely tinted and the color scheme is quite harmonious. Rev. M. Kline has been working very hard to accomplish this, since he came here and now has the third nicest church in this diocese, one at Baker City and another at The Dalles being larger and better finished. He has enclosed the grounds and started some trees to growing.

$200 EACH.

Pleas of guilty were entered at Portland in the federal court by Ed Stauffer and Wm. Manner, both of Lowry, Idaho, to a charge of maintaining illegal enclosures of land. The land comprises 50,000 acres in Malheur county, Ore., adjoining the Idaho-Oregon line. They were fined $200 each.—Ontario Argus.
