ilton on the board. All the applicants were successful.

J. S. Rendon put up one of his hay stacking machines and it looks like a very economical piece of machinery. With the stacker hay can be put up in such a manner that it will not spoil—at least as much as by the present method with racks and slides—besides handling the crop in a cheaper manner. The Times-Herald predicts that many of these stack-ers will be in use by next season.

J. A. Eberie this week purchased the Henry Kallenbach place near the Embree bridge.
This is a fine body of land with an abundance of water and contains some 350 acres of fine meadow. The purchase was made through the Inland Empire Realty Co. The price was not given for publication. We have not learned whether Mr. Eberie intends to make his home on this place or not.

but recently recovered from a severe siege of spotted fever and the trip will help him.

Judge Wm. Miller and wife are home from a visit to the side. They left here early in July going to Seattle where Mrs.
Miller was hostess on Oregon day. Later they visited Bellingham and went on north to British Columbia, visiting Port land and other interesting points on the way home. They had a delightful outing.

DREN—Elise Helene, the 5-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Schenk, died last evening about 6 o'clock. It was a very severe shock to the parents they did not realize the child was very sick until a few minutes before it died. Dr. Marsden was called just before its death and said it must have suffered from pneumonia. The friends of the bereaved family sympathize deeply with them.
The funeral will be held this afternoon from the Catholic church, Rev. Father Kline conducting the service.

The Austin stage came in Thursday a double header, there being two big four-horse coaches.
Among those arriving were a number of land seekers. It seems the opening of the Carey land has just been found out by many and there is considerable rush at present.

The state supreme court has affirmed the verdict of murder in the first degree in the case of J.
A. Finch, the disbarred lawyer who shot and killed Ralph B.
Fisher in Portland. Finch will go to the gallows unless the case is carried to the United States court and reversed.

The Crook County fair dates have been set for Oct. 19 to 25 inclusive. This brings the fair in adjointing counties near each other and makes it possible for horsemen to attend all three.
Harney County begins Oct. 5 to 10, Grant County Oct. 12 to 18, then Crook County. All three have very attractive speed programs and should bring a fine string of horses.

About a month ago Mrs. Chas.
Belshaw, a pioneer lady, residing near Mt. Vernon had the misfortune to sustain a fall while attempting to pick some berries.
She was standing on a chair and lost her balance, falling to the ground. The injury to her wrist she regarded as a severe sprain until last week, when she consulted a doctor and was informed that her wrist was broken. She received medical attention and it is thought that it will be four to six weeks before she recovers.

STEEL RANGES

THEY ARE BETTER BECAUSE:
They are built on scientific principles and the material used is so selected as to do the best work.
They are just heavy enough to be good, durable and lasting.
The strengthened joints are those where the most wear is done.
The walls are asbestos lined.
They are painted and are so neatly they are cleaner and more attractive.
