Jimmie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young was suffering from strangulated hernia the first of the week and in a very critical condition. Drs.
Marsden & Griffith relieved him and when his condition will permit will operate for a permanent cure.

DIED—At the family home in this city early Monday morning, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Schenk. The little one was nearly two years old and had never been strong from her birth. Mr. and Mrs. Schenk lost a little-girl baby in August from pneumonia and the second death is indeed hard and they have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Go to the home Hotel for a good meal.

other improvements. No rock.
G. Hudspeth, Burns, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Siler arrived home Monday from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Washington and this state. They left Eagle Valley the home of Mrs. Siler's mother, Mrs. Chas. Zeigler, not long ago leaving the latter in good health but when they arrived here they found a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Zeigler from pneumonia. She was one of the pioneer women of this section where she will be kindly remembered by a large number of friends.
Mrs. Lute Parker of this place is also a daughter of Mrs. Zeigler.

V. Cawfield came in Wednesday evening from a visit to Pueblo, Colorado. While in that place Jeff saw President Taft, being one of the reception committee. He says he invited the President to our county fair, but owing to his limited time Mr.
Taft said he would have to forego that pleasure this trip. Mr.
Cawfield says the colonist travel is heavy and that he was besieged with questions. Some of those with whom he talked will come to Harney county, but Mr. Cawfield states we are losing deal by not having some advertising literature to distribute as other sections have.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Catterson desire to express their thanks to friends and neighbors who were so kind during their recent bereavement.
The thanks of Mr. and Mrs. A.
Schenk are hereby extended to the friends and neighbors who were so kind to them during their recent bereavement.
H. J. Hansen of the Burns Meat Market is prepared to furnish bacon, hams and lard to sheepmen and ranchers in any quantity. Special prices for big orders.
Robt. Baker and wife are over from Silver Creek this week.
Mr. Baker informs us he has decided not to go to the Willamette but will likely purchase property in this vicinity.
Mesdames A. K. Richardson and H. J. Hansen returned home Thursday from Fish Haven, Idaho, where they had been called on account of the illness and death of their mother.
Among the horses to arrive this week for the fair was a harness horse belonging to Mr.
Smith of Grant county. Mr.
Smith also has a fine seven-gaited Kentucky saddle stallion.
J. E. Sizemore was over from the ranch yesterday. He will leave next week on an extended trip overland with his own team to California. He is going for recreation particularly.

At the meeting of the city council Wednesday evening the matter of revoking the franchise of the Electric Light Co. was continued indefinitely. The company made a showing that it had lost money in the past and hoped to make satisfactory arrangements in the near future to give continuous service.

The program for the teachers' annual institute has been issued.
The dates are October 13, 14, 15 in this place. The outside instructors are State Supt. Ackerman, Prof. L. R. Alderman of the State University and Prof. Chas.
H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly. The day sessions will be held in the high school building and evening sessions in the Presbyterian church.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Catterson died Saturday at the time of its birth and the remains were taken to Harney for burial on Sunday afternoon. Rev. A. J. Irwin went over and conducted the service. The bereaved parents
circle of friends.
The Burns Flour Milling Co. has begun operations and the threatened four famine is at an end. The mill started early this week and merchants were supplied at once with a good quality of flour. There has been quite a large amount of good wheat raised this season and the mill company paid the farmers a good price.
Harry C. Smith has taken over the lease of the commercial club to the opera house and is now engaged in some needed improvements that will add much to the comfort and convenience of patrons. He has already done away with the steep stairway in the main street entrance, building a sloping incline and has arranged the ticket office in the front. Material has been secured and workmen are now preparing some set scenes which will add greatly to the effect in dramatic productions. Some footlights will also be added to the stage and other improvements made.
Mr. Smith is familiar with such work and he will be generously patronized during the winter season.

DID YOU KNOW

That two flows of natural gas under an enormous pressure have been developed in Harney Valley?
Did You Know that the visible indications point to Harney Valley as being underlain with one of the greatest deposits of light gravity oil in the world?
Do You Know what that means to Central Oregon?
It means railroads and the development of all the resources of this great inland empire.
Do You Want to share in the enormous profits that await those who first tap this immense pool of oil?
The Harney Valley Oil & Gas Co. offer you this opportunity. With stock selling at 5 cents per share (par value $1.00) it is an opportunity unparalleled in the history of oil development. We will gladly answer

The Banker--a Middleman

The banker is the connecting link between the depositor and the borrower.
His function is to take the depositor's funds and loan them out to the man seeking capital; at the same time keeping a per cent. of the money on hand for the demands of regular business.
The depositor whose banker exercises careful and wise judgment with the borrower has a sufficient guarantee for his funds.
Our policy is to safeguard the money of each depositor by our capital, surplus, and ability to loan to good borrowers.
A Savings Bank Department is a feature of this Bank, in which interest at the rate of four per cent per annum is allowed.
