A. Hombree is up from his Narrows home.

See the late creations in millinery at Mrs. Drinkwater's.

Improvements continue in our city and every carpenter is busy.

Fine line of watches, chains, etc., at Salisbury's P. O. block.

The weather the past few days has made us think of our winter's wood.

Get your clothes cleaned and pressed at Schenk Bros., at reasonable prices.

Thomas & Walters who are disposing of the Trout creek valley lands in small tracts, are expected here from Chicago at once.

Ray Smith came in from the deep-well yesterday, sick. They have been working hard out at the well, but have not gone down very fast.

Gerry Cozad, Oscar Mason, R. C. Reese and L. A. Grenley made up a party of Prairie City people who arrived here Wednesday in an auto en route to the lakes for a few days shoot at the birds.

Mrs. Lelah Williams-Miller is here from Portland with a fine up to date line of fall and winter millinery. They are on display in her own building up stairs—entrance at side door next to French hotel.

State Supt. Ackerman, Prof. Alderman and C. A. Bedell were passengers out in an auto for Prineville Sunday morning. The two former go to attend the teacher's institute and the latter to take in the Crook county fair and race meet.

Cottrill & Clemens have put in a first class saw mill 1 1/2 miles west of Cold Springs is near the valley with good road. In first class timber—picked trees from the government. Prepared to do custom work. See them about your government permit at once.

Wm. Walker, clerk in the local land office, arrived home yesterday from a vacation trip to his old home in Wisconsin. His father's health is very poor and Mr. Walker spent all the time possible with him.

Paints, Oils, Doors and Windows, in fact everything for the farmer or builder. Give us a call and we will be glad to give you prices. Myers Pumps and Star Windmills. Harney Co. Imp. & Hdwe. Co.

A new kind of crop rotation is reported by the Prineville Review in the case of Allen Kutzman, who has a forty of dry land near Bend. Mr. Kutzman last year sowed the forty to oats and they did not come up at all. This spring he sowed it to wheat, and this summer he has a crop of oats. He expects next year to have a crop of wheat.

While here last week Prof. L. R. Alderman of the State University handed the writer a copy of the correspondence course of that institution. A good many new courses have been added to this department and among them are Economics, Sociology, Finance, Money and banking and Transportation. These studies are particularly necessary and will be found practical to those desiring to take up the correspondence course. There are now 400 students enrolled in this course.

Try a meal at the Home Hotel. What's the matter with having some football games?

For sheplined coats see Lunenburg and Dalton.

Security for Depositors in Addition to Capital and Surplus
The stockholders of this bank are liable to depositors for an amount equal to their investment. In other words, our shareholders must lose first the original capital of the bank, second all of the surplus, third an amount equal to the capital stock—a total of $60,000.00 before a single depositor loses a cent. You know that with this security, backed as it is with the conservative management, good judgment, and wide business experience of our officers, there is no chance of any depositor losing a cent that is placed in this bank.

A Savings Bank Department is a feature of this Bank, in which interest at the rate of four per cent per annum is allowed.
