A PUBLIC PLAY GROUND.

The Mothers' Club is now out for new achievements and the ladies will have the active support of every good citizen of Burns.

This matter has had more or less attention in these columns in the past and has been discussed by the Commercial Club, the city authorities and all good citizens.

The Mothers' Club will give its annual bazaar next Friday at the King hall—the moving picture theatre—and in connection will serve white and brown bread, baked beans, pickles, and coffee.

The Times-Herald heartily approves of this move and believes the ladies will have strong support from our citizens.

DALTON THOMPSON

For the third time within a year the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dalton was the scene of a very pretty wedding when on December 1st at 8:30 p. m. their second son, Chester, was united in marriage to Miss Florence Thompson, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Thompson of Waverly.

new buildings on his farm. Burt will soon have the best improved ranch in the valley.

Henry Harmer has been hauling lumber from Burns to make new improvements.

Clarence Harmer was a business visitor to the Narrows, Sunday.

Miss Neva Hodder gave a party at the home of W. G. Hodder, Saturday evening, Nov. 27, for the benefit of the Christmas tree and it was attended by a large crowd who all report having a fine time.

Fred Myers and wife were visiting at the home of W. G. Hodder and wife Sunday.

George Smallwood of Grant county is visiting with his mother, Mrs. Henry Harmer.

Walter Harmer has returned home from Grant county where he has been visiting with his sister Mrs. Pearl Parkins.

Andy Osborn, of Narrows, was a visitor to the dance in Sunset Thursday evening.

W. C. Fitzgerald and wife were visitors to Sunset Thursday. Fitz is a jolly fellow and is a welcome visitor to Sunset dances any time.

Walter Sullivan has been taking some pictures of the Narrows.

C. V. Reed and wife, R. D. Stahl and wife, Mr. Shepard and wife, Miss Neva Hodder, James Reed, Fred Barron, I. S. Tyler, W. R. Dawson and Clyde Embree were present at the Narrows dance Friday evening.

Pete Haley was in Sunset Sunday on business.

Robert Settlemire and Clyde Embree are improving the looks of their homesteads by setting out trees and flowers. In a few years they will have the finest homes in Sunset, but they are still single as they don't seem to know how to get married.

The taxable property in the Sunset school district amounts to $56,240 which is a good showing for a new district three years old. The district has $600 in school money in the bank and a $700 school house. They will probably have a nine months school this year.

Prof. Raymond, Robert Settlemire, F. P. Blackmer, I. S. Tyler, N. Henney, Clyde and Van Embree, Prof. McKee, Burt Porter, W. R. Dawson, Ben Roder, R. D. Stahl, Reed brothers, E. C. Eggleston and W. G. Hodder Sunset valley's progressive homesteaders have prospects for good crops of grain next year.

Every locality in Harney valley ought to have a park where the citizens could meet to hold picnics and other public meetings. It will not take much land and trees are cheap. Carolina and Silver Poplar make quick growth and do well in this country.

The two big Thanksgiving dances given Thursday in Sunset and Friday evening at Narrows were the best this year and shows what the people of Sunset and Narrows can do when they stand together. Thursday's dance was given for the benefit of the Sunset school house and $15 was turned over to the building committee.

One-half the membership of the Ladies' Five Hundred Club gave a delightful evening at cards Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall to which the husbands were invited. There were ten tables in all and when the hands were completed it was found Mrs. J. L. Gault had the highest score for the ladies and Mrs. J. W. Geary the lowest.
