WILLIAM BYRD - - - - - Manager

Such weather and seasons as we are now experiencing emphasize the necessity of the conservation and proper handling of our water supply.

While the work of securing a creditable exhibit of Harney county products for the fair and Mr. Hill is rather a hard task our people are going to do the very best possible and the Times-Herald hopes all will cooperate.

Some very encouraging reports are now coming in regarding crops in various parts of the county. The season has been the most unfavorable for many years and prospects were rather discouraging.

A perfect town is that in which you see the farmers all patronize the home merchants, the merchants all patronize their neighbors for goods they do not handle themselves.

Well, Well! The Prairie City Miner says the Burns boys refused to play another game with the Prairie ball team "which is proof enough of their fears."

High New York banking authorities do not despise the prediction that the new postal savings bank law will add millions to the amount of money in circulation.

A circular of the New York City bank says that this money constitutes a new source of banking deposits, which will quickly be put to work.

This is the banker's and the government's point of view, but a far greater benefit will come from the postal savings banks. They will keep a great amount of money in the country that would otherwise have been sent abroad.

HILL WILL BUILD.

That the Hill road from Ontario across central Oregon to the coast will be built is the statement made by W. P. Davidson, president of the Oregon and Western Colonization Company.

Articles of incorporation of the Butte Boise & San Francisco Railroad Company have been filed in Butte by State Senator W. H. Haviland.

BUILDING COUNTY ROADS.

W. L. Gibson, county road master for Malheur county, was in Ontario Saturday on his way to Vale for a conference with the county court.

The workmen are using a modern road grader, requiring fourteen horses and three men to operate it. A heavy plow is fixed in the center of the machine with an elevator 18 feet long attached to the plow.

Autos Help Good Roads Cause

To espouse the cause of good roads is popular because good roads benefit everybody. Motor clubs that put forth their efforts to the building and maintenance of roads will strike a popular cord and should and will receive the support of the general public.

The American Automobile Association, with its quarter of a million members, is the great power now working for federal aid in building roads. The transcontinental highways which will be built within the next few years may be directly attributed to the work of the force at the national capital.

John Thomas, the young man reported last week suffering from a chicken bone in his throat, died in this city Tuesday afternoon. He had been advised to go to Portland but failed to do so.

Joseph Leonard, a photographer in the employ of the O. R. & N. Railroad, arrived here Monday for the purpose of obtaining views to be used by his road in advertising this section.

The movement to strike San Francisco is believed to be the following of a program laid some time ago by foreign capitalists who are aware of the Northwest railroad conditions and believe that a road virtually from Canada to San Francisco will open up a heretofore unparalled field, in that it will tap the great belt of the Northwest and the Canadian territories.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.
