

One Year... Six Months... Three Months...

JULIAN BYRD - - - - - Manager

More grain, more hay, more garden produce and more fruit than was expected in Harney county sounds mighty good.

The Times-Herald has two political announcements in this issue, Henry Richardson for sheriff on the democratic ticket and W. W. Wood of Canyon City for circuit judge in this judicial district.

The Times-Herald is confident that the visit of the head of the Harriman railroad system means immediate railroad development in this section regardless of the fact that there is no formal announcement.

"Order by mail" is the slogan the crafty mail order house paints on the farmer's barn door. They paint it on the old rail fence and they smear it over stumps, and logs, rocks and trees.

MASONS TO LAY CORNER STONE.

J. E. Loggan, Master of the local Masonic lodge, is arranging to have the corner stone ceremony of the new Masonic building take place on Sunday, Aug. 21.

BIG RAILROAD MEN HERE

JUDGE R. S. LOVETT, HEAD OF HARRIMAN SYSTEM, IN BURNS.

Together With High Officials of Northwest Lines is Making Tour of Interior—An Informal Reception Tonight.

Judge R. S. Lovett head of the Harriman railroads and successor to the late E. H. Harriman, is one of the party of high officers of that system to arrive in this city last night.

Judge Lovett stated this morning that there was no special significance attached to this visit. He merely wanted to see the country for himself.

The party consists of Judge R. S. Lovett and his secretary, Mr. Cornell; J. P. O'Brien, vice president and general manager of the Harriman Northwest lines; W. W. Cotton, their attorney of Portland who is quite well known here and a land owner in this Valley; Carl Stradley, chief locating engineer who has had charge of the surveys of the Oregon Eastern line through this section; R. B. Miller, traffic manager of the O. R. & N. and Oregon Washington, and G. W. Buck, assistant engineer of the same territory.

Messrs. O'Brien, Miller and Buck were here during June and made quite a tour of the interior section. The gentlemen met the people of Burns informally during that visit and Mr. O'Brien stated at that time they were here to look at the country.
