

To The Pessimist.

You are the most utterly useless of all humans. The space which you occupy upon the surface of the earth is a wasted spot. Without the ability to create, you aim to kill the spirit of creation; without the skill to produce, you seek to check the advance of progress.

You are poison oak in the forest—a creeper without the strength to climb on your own stem. You not only are fruitless but one degree worse than sterile—you absorb vitality to no purpose and hurt every thing with which you come in contact.

Despite the evidence of all ages, you still refuse to recognize that nothing achieved without trial—that nothing can be accomplished unless it is attempted with courage and enthusiasm—and still you make of yourself a checkrein wherever there is cause for a spur—you persist in kicking with discouragement every striver who needs the helping hand of confidence.

Cattle in Prime Condition.

Not in recent years have cattle on the range looked as well as they do at present. At least this seems to be the opinion of stockmen from different portions of the county. Why they should be in better condition this year than common with the dry conditions prevailing is a question. The early spring grass was exceptionally good this year and stock fattened up from the start and have seemed to have had no set back but have continued to improve. It is said that there is much stuff on the range now that would go to beef.—Blue Mt. Eagle.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Sold by all dealers.

Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Sold by Reed Bros.

Within 48 hours after beginning to use the Restorative, improvement will be noticed. Of course full health will not immediately return. The gain, however will surely follow.
