Schenk Bros. ad.
Meet me at the Mt. Vernon Hotel Springs.

Cash paid for Eggs and Butter at The Busy Corner Store.

Walter Gray was up from Lewes during the week.

Those Panama hats at Schenk Bros. are the proper things.

Chicken dinner at the Burns Hotel tomorrow at 6 o'clock, 50 cents.

Cooler nights have come and evening parties will be returning home.

Men's $3.00 and $3.50 Trousers for $1.75 at The Busy Corner Store.

Class, Wilson and J. S. Cook and their families have returned from their outing in the mountains.

Mays & Finch, paper hangers, wall decorators, Carriage painters and Furniture redressing, Locher Building.

A new line of dry goods, furnishings, shoes, hats, etc. can always be found at Hagey & Richardson's.

FIRE INSURANCE AT COST is one of the strongest Mutuals in the state. See us about it.
Randall, Passenger & Maloney.

Mrs. P. H. Gray is quite ill at her home at Lawen. Dr. Geary was called to see her the first of this week and reports the lady better.

Those having relinquishments or real estate for sale should consult E. W. VanValkenburg, the real estate man, at his office in Burns.

The Horticultural Fire Relief Co. of Salem saved policy-holders $10,000.00 last year in premiums.
Let us tell you more about it.
Randall, Passenger & Maloney.

Levi Stewart, father of J. D.
Stewart of this city, arrived here the first of this week and may make his home here with his son.
Mr. Stewart formerly lived at Ashland but has disposed of his home there.

Sheriff Richardson left here last Saturday for Susanville, California to bring back Charley Hart who has been indicted for horse stealing. The crime was committed some time ago and the sheriff has been keeping a watch-out for the accused.

H. N. Ford spent a few days here this week displaying two of his handsome Oakland Autos and interesting prospective purchasers. These are good serviceable cars of 40-horse power with good clearance and are reasonable in price. Mr. Ford was accompanied in by James Munro, cashier of the First National Bank of Vale.
Mr. Munro is merely here on an outing to see the country and get acquainted with the people. He is a very pleasant young man.

veyance and will remain here.
Henry says the mines in the district where he has been are not very active at present and he has leased part of his properties and placed what other mining interests he had in the hands of agents. The prospect for immediate railroad constructions into this section has attracted Henry back to old haunts and he will possibly locate perma-

"The Great Commandment." Everybody most cordially invited to attend these services.When the digestion is all right, the action of the bowels regular, there is a natural craving and relish for food. When this is lacking you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
They strengthen the digestive organs, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Sold by all dealers.If you are thinking of making a trip to the mountains, any time this summer, to give your wife and family a chance to rest and regain their health, do not overlook the fact that at the Mt.
Vernon Hot Springs in Grant County, Oregon, you will get more pleasure for your money and regain more health than at any other resort in Oregon.
Write for a pamphlet giving full particulars.A brown mare aged six years weighing about 1000 pounds branded 8 E on left jaw and a blocked brand on the left shoulder was placed in my corral at the Star Barn in Burns about May 1, 1910. The owner is requested to come at once, pay all charges and claim the animal otherwise she will be treated as an estray and disposed of according to law.

CORTES ELLIOTT.

J. L. Pierce left Monday for outside points accompanied by his wife and son. Mr. Pierce came here for the purpose of engaging with Archie McGowan in the abstract business, but as some outside stock in the concern had to be adjusted he had not gotten to work on the books.
Mrs. Pierce is in poor health and it was necessary to get her to a lower altitude, hence the trip. Mr. Pierce expects to return here in the near future.Frank Cummins returned the first of this week from Steens Mountain where he is interested with his brother Will in sheep.
Mr. Cummins intended leaving for his home at Westfall but took sick and is still at his brother's home in this city. He seems to be suffering from rheumatism.
Frank says the report that sheep were selling for $1 and lambs for 50 cents per head over there was a mistake. Several bands of ewes have been sold in the Steens Mountain district for $5 per head and what lambs have been sold brought $2.50. The Cummins Bros. refused $2.25 for their lambs.We repair all breaks but the break of day—Mays & Finch, sell your relinquishment or other property the Inland Empire Realty Co. will be of great assistance to you. They have sold others and can sell yours.Why pay the rates charged by Standard Companies, when you can get the same protection for about half? Fire Insurance ta-cost in the Horticultural Fire Relief. Randall, Passenger & Maloney.BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eglin in this city, Saturday, Aug.

13 a daughter. The little one passed away Monday morning.
Mrs. Eglin is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farre and is doing well.$5 REWARD—For return of bay horse, branded, quarter circle C on left shoulder and circle 7 on left stifle; white face and hind feet white up to ankles; wire cut on first quarter left front foot.
Return to White Front Barn.Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown are over from Diamond to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the Masonic temple this afternoon. Mr.
Brown states that the range is holding out well but they need some rain.In buying a cough medicine don't be afraid to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is sure to follow. Especially recommended for coughs, colds, and whooping cough. Sold by all dealers.Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shaw left last Monday for Santa Cruz, California, where they have purchased an ideal home of 20 acres on a mountain stream near some resorts. The tract contains 10 acres of oak and redwood timber, 6 acres of orchard and a fine garden spot. They hope it will prove attractive and beneficial to their health there.
