CORTES ELLIOTT. Secretary Haight of the Grant county fair has suggested some baseball games between Grant and Harney county teams during our fair here with return games over there. The matter has received consideration but it seems almost impossible to get up a team to go over and play at John Day. With the schools in session at that time and business affairs demanding attention the boys do not see their way clear for such an arrangement. An early decision will be reached, however, and Secretary Haight notified. It would be a fine arrangement and quite an attraction in addition to speed events, etc.

In buying a cough medicine don't be afraid to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is sure to follow. Especially recommended for coughs, colds, and whooping cough. Sold by all dealers.

The writer in company with Ludwig Johnson drove up the river Sunday as far as the R. J. McKinnon home where they were most cordially received by "Uncle Bob" and feasted on apples right off the trees. Mr. McKinnon has a very good crop of apples and prunes this year and has some pears. His garden is not up to its usual standard according to "Uncle Bob" but it looked good to us. A view of the Gail Barnes garden on the road up was worth the trip and if Gail don't take first prize at the fair, Harney County has some of the best gardens on earth. Mr. Johnson is a very pleasant companion on such a trip but he is too tender hearted to shoot a sage hen.
