SUPPORT THE COUNTY FAIR

Oregon should have the best fairs in its history this autumn, says the Oregon Journal. There is no good reason why expositions of great merit should not be maintained in the west as well as in the central and eastern states.

The county fair has proved itself a wonderful inspiration wherever it has been encouraged and managed with ability. The annual gathering of farmers and their families, and commingling of men of all professions and occupations, the competitions, the interchange of ideas, all have a broadening and helpful effect upon the people of any country or section.

There will be a social dance at the Sunset schoolhouse on Sept. 16. Supper will be served at Mrs. Eggleston's. Good music. All cordially invited.

Dr. H. M. Horton and wife, Mrs. E. N. Jameson and her daughter Mrs. Chas. King and family arrived home yesterday from a camping trip at Mt. Vernon springs.

Stonewall Cawfield and W. Applegate are in the city. They have been visiting in various parts of this county for several weeks. They came in to consult a physician regarding Mrs. Cawfield's health.

Watch the wise political guy who is telling you who will be candidates and all about it and then see what the line up will be when the primary ballots are printed—then figure out what he knows about it.

G. A. Stoneman one, of our new and energetic home-steaders, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Stoneman told the Times-Herald man that he would show us some fine potatoes grown on dry land at the fair.

Archie McGowan took his departure Thursday morning for Portland where he goes for another auto and may bring back two. Geo. Hagey accompanied him out and will take in the big race meet and livestock show at Portland and the state fair at Salem.

U. S. SURVEYORS ARRIVE

The recent order of congress to have several unsurveyed townships in the southwestern part of this county surveyed has brought a big corps of government engineers here for that purpose. They arrived here Thursday and in all there are something over 40 people who will engage in the work. The crowd flocked into the French hotel at noon and made Lloyd Culp do some hustling to take care of them.

They spent yesterday in securing supplies and outfitting and will at once proceed to their destination, the party being augmented by several local boys who will assist in the work.

Chas. Carter and wife and Chas. Cozad and wife are with them the boys acting as teamsters and the ladies will assist in cooking at different camps.

The work covers a large territory, extending from Iron Mountain south and east to the Nevada line, and it will take at least three months to complete the surveys. There will be some three or four camps. This work is the result of an effort of the Burns Commercial Club which took the matter up last winter.

LOCAL OVERFLOW

Geo. Buchanan was in from home Wednesday.

Several threshing machines are busy in this vicinity at this time and the yield of grain is quite satisfactory.

A. E. Murphy and family were in from the Iron Mountain ranch a few days this week.

Miss Florence Farnum has returned from her vacation trip to outside points and is ready to take up her duties as a teacher in the public school next week.

F. A. Cole expects to leave tomorrow morning for Portland and other points. Mr. Cole's pacing horse, Harold Welcome, is entered in the races at Portland, Salem, Everett and other race meets and Frank wants to see him go.

Grand Chancellor Yoran of the Oregon K. of P. will be in Burns on Monday Sept. 12 and desires to meet all K. of P's. at the I. O. O. F. hall on that evening with a view of resuscitating Inland Lodge No 70 of this city. All Knights are invited to be present.

35c Wash Belts for 20c at the Busy Corner Store.

The young people enjoyed a social dance last night.

Henry Otley and Elbert George were up from Lawen yesterday.

How about the riding mule? Get him ready for the mule race during fair week.

Good pasture with water where horses will be taken—Mrs. F. E. McGee, Burns, Oregon.

Whips from 15c. to $4 each unbreakable whips that will last you a life time at J. C. Welcome & Son's.

Get your driving teams ready for the county fair. There will be a gentleman's race for teams to four wheel rigs.

Miss Mary Godfrey arrived last night in the Holland auto. The young lady is one of the teachers in the high school.

There will be a social dance at the Sunset schoolhouse on Sept. 16. Supper will be served at Mrs. Eggleston's. Good music. All cordially invited.

Dr. H. M. Horton and wife, Mrs. E. N. Jameson and her daughter Mrs. Chas. King and family arrived home yesterday from a camping trip at Mt. Vernon springs.

Stonewall Cawfield and W. Applegate are in the city. They have been visiting in various parts of this county for several weeks. They came in to consult a physician regarding Mrs. Cawfield's health.

G. A. Stoneman one, of our new and energetic home-steaders, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Stoneman told the Times-Herald man that he would show us some fine potatoes grown on dry land at the fair.

Archie McGowan took his departure Thursday morning for Portland where he goes for another auto and may bring back two. Geo. Hagey accompanied him out and will take in the big race meet and livestock show at Portland and the state fair at Salem.

Miss Enid Cawfield arrived home Thursday from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Colorado. While en route home she stopped at Boise where she was joined by Ed Stallard and wife (her sister) and her brother Owen, and all visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roberts.

I have all the popular varieties of prunes raised in the state of Oregon including California Sugar, 1000 lbs. of Belshaw, also a large amount of the famous Golden Branch plums and other varieties. Peaches and apples all for sale at the Belshaw ranch near Mt. Vernon.

The entertainment program for fair week will be most interesting yet put out. Some of the new features this year will be bronco busting contests, mule races, a race for lady riders, driving team races, squaw races, etc. The program will be completed at once and mailed out. It will prove very attractive.

School will start September 5th and the mothers are busy planning and making clothes for the children. The shoe question is receiving serious attention as it is important to know where to get the best shoes for the least money. Until Sept. 10th there will be a reduction of 20 per cent on all children's shoes at the Busy Corner Store.

A letter just received from Secy. Haight of the Grant county fair says they will let us know Monday in regard to the base ball team coming over for three games during our fair. Grant county will hang purses for horse races, auto races, ball games and other sports during the fair at John Day which follows the Harney County fair.

Mrs. Hattie White and little son arrived here yesterday to visit for an indefinite time with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Huston. Mrs. White's home is near Woodburn. She was one of the several passengers on the stage yesterday morning which tipped off the grade near Bear Valley and wrecked the vehicle. None of the passengers were seriously injured but more or less bruised. Fortunately the front wheels came loose allowing the horses to get away without dragging the rig, otherwise it would certainly have been a tragedy.

FOR SALE—Second hand buggy and light hack enquire at this office.

Mrs. Robt. Irving and daughter Zella were visiting in our city this week.

Ralph Hyram was over from Bear Valley Wednesday looking after some business. He says the grain crop up there is short this season.

FOR SALE—Black Percheron Stallion 5 years old, weight about 1800 lbs. Call on F. J. Conrad in Sunset or address him at Burns. If not sold before the horse may be seen at the fair ground during the fair.

There will be an effort made to secure some good speakers on subjects political, horticulture, farming, stock raising, etc., during the fair week. Announcements of these features will be made from time to time in the papers.

Louis Schwartz and wife accompanied by little Regina Schwartz arrived from Portland in the Holland auto last night. They will visit an indefinite time with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Schwartz Regina has been visiting in Portland since spring and is now ready to begin school again.

DIED—At her home in Silvies Valley last Monday, Mrs. Amos Hankins, aged 64 years. The lady was sick but a short time with stomach trouble. The remains were brought to this city for burial Wednesday afternoon. Deceased had lived in Silvies Valley for about 11 years and is survived by four daughters and three sons. Mrs. E. E. Owsley of this city, Mrs. Breedlove of Silvies, a daughter in Oklahoma and one in Colorado. Two of her sons, Del and Ernest live in Silvies and another son lives at Ontario. Her husband died two years ago. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a wide circle of acquaintances.
