JULIAN BYRD

The supplement sent out by this great religious weekly last issue is an exact duplicate of the official ballot to be voted at Tuesday's election.

The voters should be careful in voting for higher salaries to public officers. None of them get to much pay, perhaps, but they know the salary before asking for the office and therefore should not accept unless they are satisfied.

The Times-Herald, last week, published an article from the Bend Bulletin in which it questioned the motive of the proposed good roads law, stating it was in the interests of bonding people.

The Times-Herald would urge upon voters to select good, clean competent men for all offices to be filled at Tuesday's election.

When Senator Bourne's man "Friday" fights Oswald West it is conclusive evidence that there is no Chamberlain-Bourne combination.

DR. T. V. B. EMBREE.

Van Embree came in the first of the week upon learning of the death of his father, Dr. T. V. B. Embree, at Dallas.

Doctor Embree was married in Corvallis in 1868, his bride being Miss Annie E. Finley, a native of Santa Clara, California, and a sister of John P. Finley, the pioneer undertaker of Portland.

The Doctor was a life long member of the church and was a licensed minister of the gospel. He was one of the earliest members of Jennings Lodge, A. F. & A. M., having been made a Mason in that lodge in the late '50s.

Doctor Embree was a man of strong personality. He was an original thinker and ready speaker. He was outspoken in the defense of his views and opinions, but was always ready to listen to the opinions of others.
