In purchasing real estate you should demand of the grantor an abstract of title to property purchased. You should know that you have a marketable title and one that will not cost you trouble and expense when the time comes that you want to sell.

Harney County Abstract Co., Inc. ARCHIE MCGOWAN, Pres.

Alex Roger and his sister were over from their home near Harney Thursday bringing the former's little daughter in for medical treatment. The little one had gotten a large amount of paper in one of her nostrils in such a manner that it could not be removed by any ordinary method. It was removed by physicians.

DIED—At the family home near the lake last Monday morning, Gerald Griffin, aged 60 years. Mr. Griffin had been in his usual health with the exception of a slight cold and his death was very sudden being caused by the bursting of a blood vessel. He awakened his wife stating he did not feel well and by the time she had lighted a lamp he was dead. Deceased had been a resident of this county for 19 years where he had accumulated about 1000 acres of land and considerable stock. He was a graduate from the Ann Arbor law school but had not practiced law for several years. He leaves a widow and four sons, Gerald and Edward of Spokane, Wash., Francis and Leslie of this county. He is also survived by one brother in New York. The remains were brought to this place for interment last Wednesday, Rev. A. J. Irwin conducting the service at the cemetery. Work on the Masonic Temple is going forward in a very satisfactory manner and the entire building is now enclosed. The plate glass front has been put in this week and it presents a very attractive appearance. It is modern in every respect. The entire first floor will be occupied by "The Busy Corner Store" and Mr. Schwartz will have most convenient quarters.

Do you realize what it might mean to buy property that has an imperfect title? A warranty deed should not be sufficient, as it is sufficient evidence of title. You should have before you absolute evidence of the grantors' right and title to the property transferred. An abstract shows every instrument on record that affects the title and should be as important as the deed.—HARNEY COUNTY ABSTRACT CO., Inc. ARCHIE MCGOWAN, Pres. and Manager.

The Times-Herald man has received an invitation from Judge Webster to attend a convention of the Oregon Good Roads Association to be held in Portland Dec. 12, as a delegate from this county. He would like to attend but has cold feet when he calls to mind the condition of the good roads (?) in this section. With dozens of freight teams tied up between here and the railroad and the stage being sometimes 24 hours late a trip out at this particular time doesn't appeal to one. We need better roads, that's a cinch.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.
