There will be work in the Master Mason degree at the Masonic lodge tonight.
Get your Winter Clothing at The Busy Corner Store.
J. W. Shown and J. M. Shown and family were over from Harney this week.
Lunaburg, Dalton & Co. have all kinds of Christmas goods.
Sylvester Smith spent several days in our city this week on business.
Furnished rooms, Plain Sewing MRS. DORA LESTER, Burns, Or.
There is a nice display of Dolls in the south window of The Busy Corner Store.
Since the freezing weather has come the roads have improved and the stages are again arriving on schedule time.
Hagey & Richardson carry the best brands of groceries. All fresh.
The production of "Uncle Rube," the four-act comedy drama by local talent was greeted by a big house Wednesday evening and, as usual, made good. The cast was well chosen and each character well sustained after the first "stage fright" had worn off. It was the first appearance for some of the cast and they were naturally a little timid at the beginning. The large crowd thoroughly appreciated the clever work and expressed it by generous applause. The net receipts were over $100 which was divided equally between the fire department and the Mothers' Club. The latter amount applies on the children's playground fund.

High class Christmas goods at Lunaburg, Dalton & Co.
20 per cent off on mens and boys suits—Fred Haines.
WANTED—Horses to pasture and winter. Call on or address CHAS. WILSON.
We are glad to report the gradual improvement of Miss Lou Davey after so many weeks of illness.
Everything for every body at the Lunaburg, Dalton & Co. Department Store.
A large number of young people attended a very enjoyable social at the Baptist church last night.
For Toilet Sets Reed Bros. Drug Store has the finest display ever seen in the city.
The French Hotel serves a fine Sunday dinner and special attention is given to family service.
A new line of dry goods, furnishings, shoes, hats, etc. can always be found at Hagey & Richardson's.
There will be a meeting at the office of Archie McGowan, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, December 19th, for the purpose of discussing needed changes in laws pertaining to the protection of game and the enforcement thereof.
The following officers have been elected by Burns Chapter, No. 40, O. E. S. for the coming year: Mrs. Vella Welcome, Worthy Matron; Julian Byrd, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Frankie Welcome, Associate Matron; Mrs. Ella Sweet, secretary; Mrs. Ella Voegtly, treasurer; Miss Agnes Sayer, conductress; Mrs. Lizzie Dalton, associate conductress.

9 yards of outing flannel $1.00—Fred Haines.
Mrs. J. L. Gault entertained a party of lady friends at cards Wednesday afternoon.
Just arrived fine lot of blankets, ladies', gents' and children's coat sweaters—Fred Haines.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Caldwell was brought down from the ranch ill the first of this week. He is now much improved.
Schenk Bros. do not have to send your suit back to a Philadelphia lawyer for alteration. They are tailors and can do it themselves.
Floy Poujade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Poujade, was operated on Thursday by Drs. Marsden & Griffith. They removed some bad tonsils and adenoids.
On January 1, 1911 I will make my furniture business strictly cash. Goods will be sold at prices to justify every purchaser in paying the cash—G. W. Clevenger.
R. H. Brown, the Diamond sheep man, came over Monday after a load of grain. Mr. Brown says the weather has been fine for sheep and he has three flocks on the desert doing well with plenty of feed.
A BARGAIN—640 acres of level sagebrush land, good soil. For sale at $10.00 per acre on any reasonable terms if sold before January 1st, 1911. If you are interested and mean business address: L. H. W., Box 11, Burns, Oregon.
Zollie Dibble is over from Silver creek on a short visit. Mr. Dibble had an ankle crushed several weeks ago by a horse falling on him and he has been on crutches almost constantly since but is able to do without them now.
Post Master Loggan calls attention to a late ruling of the Post Office Department. It has been the rule heretofore to hold mail 30 days before being advertised or returned to the writer. Under the new rule mail will only be held 5 days under the same conditions.
F. C. Dillard, until recently assistant engineer in the Reclamation Service, is a late arrival in Burns and will in future be associated with A. O. Faulkner in the Eastern Oregon Engineering Co. Mr. Dillard is a nephew of the late H. A. Dillard of this city and is an experienced, practical engineer. His association with Mr. Faulkner gives this section added facilities in this line.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Miller gave a delightful card party at the home of the latter Thursday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and carnations. A large company spent a very pleasant evening. The highest scores of the ladies were made by Miss Josie Locher and Mrs. L. A. Laurence, the lowest by Miss Godfrey and Mrs. J. L. Gault. Charles Ellis had the highest score among the gentlemen with I. H. Holland next. Senator A. W. Gowen and A. O. Faulkner had the lowest scores. Dainty refreshments were served.

Day reduction in men's suits—Fred Haines.
Mrs. P. C. Petersen has been ill at her home in this city, but is improving.
Schenk Bros. have received a case of Alfred Benjamin clothing. Have you listed your land yet? See Irving Miller before you do.
Men's, ladies' and children's shoes at a bargain—Fred Haines.
The personal attention given guests at the French Hotel has given it a good reputation—L. E. Culin, Prop.
A Book is always appreciated. Books for Old Folks and Young Folks in great variety at Reed Bros. Drug Store.

Give the little ones a treat. Take them on a trip through Toyland at The Busy Corner Store.
One of the handsomest calendars ever given out by local people is being distributed by the First National Bank of this city.
Meerschmum, Briar and Composition Pipes, with Amber and Artificial Stems—a big display at Reed Bros. Drug Store.
The right man can secure a lease upon 300 acres of well irrigated land close to Burns. If interested call at this office.
Miss K. Neugebauer is located in the Jorgensen building south Main St. and is prepared to do all kinds of dress making.
All goods at the Hagey & Richardson general merchandise store are new and up to date. Good values in every purchase.
Report has it that the showing of Hand Bags and Ladies' Purse at Reed Bros. Drug Store exceeds anything ever seen in Burns.
Regular preaching services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday Dec. 18th, both morning and evening. Subject for the morning hour: "The Stars that Guide"; Evening: "Things that Demand Courage." Don't forget these services.
There are only six more shopping days left before Christmas, and here in Burns they are likely to be busy ones, since the condition of the roads has hindered general trading among the farmers and ranchers. Local people should get their shopping done, so as to be out of the way for those who as yet have had no chance to come to town for this purpose.
Do you realize what it might mean to buy property that has an imperfect title? A warranty deed should not be sufficient, as it is not sufficient evidence of title. You should have before you absolute evidence of the grantors' right and title to the property transferred. An abstract shows every instrument on record that affects the title and should be as important as the deed.—HARNEY COUNTY ABSTRACT CO., INC. ARCHIE MCGOWAN, Pres. and Manager.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all good dealers.

I RISE TO SAY!

Concentrate your mind on the main point—then move. Irrigation of Harney Valley will have early consideration, but in the mean time Don't Overlook the Fine Assortment of Jewelry at Salisbury's. Get busy before Christmas. Next door to Harney County National Bank.

table place to board.
See the Inland Empire Realty Co. if you have anything for sale or exchange.
