"BURNS.—The First National Bank of this city, with $25,000.00 capital, now carries $55,000.00 surplus, making it one of the strongest little banks in the whole country. This is a deposit guarantee worth talking about."

The foregoing is an exact copy of a strong commendatory notice given our institution by the Pacific Banker, the leading financial journal of the Northwest, in its issue of Sept. 16th, 1911. This indorsement is worthy of consideration by the banking public. Are you availing yourself of this strong deposit guarantee? If not, we invite you to become a depositor with us.

W. F. Hissner expects his new pool tables and other supplies in by fair week for his new pool rooms in the Hissner building. He has one of the neatest rooms in Burns completed on the corner and will conduct an ideal place for patrons to while away their time while not otherwise occupied. The furniture is all to be old mission style and he will keep the best brands of cigars, smokers' supplies, dainty confections, etc.
Fred Williams has purchased the half interest of Geo. Schenk in the Merchant Tailors establishment and took possession this week. Fred is a Harney county boy who has been in Portland for the past few years since completing his schooling and has had considerable experience in such business. Associated with M. Schenk the business should prosper as both are popular and deserving young men. They will keep a first class tailor and intend to make some improvements in the lines carried. The Times-Herald is pleased to recommend this new firm and predicts success.

Finds no worthy action done."
There is no more worthy action, that you could do today, than protect your family with a good life insurance policy. You are growing older, you can never buy insurance so cheap again. You may not be insurable next week. Write or ask me about those children's endowments of Oregon Life that are becoming so popular all over the state.
