magnificent specimens of horse flesh and are a credit to Harney county.

Mr. Robert Settlemeier has a string of studs that is worthy of special mention, this string consists of five imported prize winners and stand the owner $15,000. They consist of an English Shire, weight 2100, this horse has just taken a first and second and grand championship at the Portland horse show. His beautiful English Hackney is a fine all around horse, he shows speed and body and is a suitable horse for all purposes. The Belgian 3 year old weighing 2060 lbs is one of the finest Belgian horses ever brought into Oregon. A French Coach and a grey Percheron compose the remainder of this fine lot of horses, our citizens ought to feel proud to be honored with the presence of such a bunch of thoroughbreds. Mr. Settlemeier is also the proud possessor of a solid silver and gold mounted saddle and bridle which are the best on the Pacific slope.

AMONG THE STOCK.

A number of Harney county's most fabled horses are absent from the county in attendance at the track meets held in Ontario and other places but some very promising colts are to be seen at the fair grounds. While these colts are not fully developed, under the careful training of those in charge they are expected to show up a speed of more than ordinary, some of them have made fine records in private even now.

Chas. Brittingham has a 2 year old that judging from build and movement ought to be heard from later on.

The stallion exhibit is exceptionally fine. Smith and Hagey's trotting stud is the sire of many fine colts some of them have made their mark on the track, they also have two fine pacing colts, which are being trained to become world beaters.

Among the draft horses are found some very fine Percherons, one of which is the property of County Judge Thompson, another Mr. P. G. Smith. They are both
