JULIAN BYRD - - - - - MANAGER

A keen, observing Portlander says a weakness of this program is the lack of giving the farmer an opportunity to express himself.

Hon. A. A. Callan delivered an appropriate address bearing many timely and important suggestions. We are with him in Oregon producing its own hogs, chickens, and eggs and while it is so easy to raise them why not raise a few extra for export as well.

DO YOU WANT TO HELP.

The fair management does not like to ask any unreasonable favors of business men of Burns. They have asked none and the secretary is too busy to go to them with a paper to have them sign an agreement to close so the band may be secured each afternoon. That is the only way, the band can be secured—for the business houses to close. Are any of you interested in what the Fair Association is doing for this town and county, or would you rather let the association just do the best it can and you sit by, take in what money the fair visitors bring you and criticize? If you want, the band concerts (the Association will pay the bill) and help out some one please get busy.

Some people always take the outsiders word for everything. It was circulated yesterday was childrens day at the fair—but the management didn't know it. The little ones—most of them—came without money. The gate keepers let them in.

W. R. Gekler, state organizer of the Grange, and Mr. C. D. Huffman arrived yesterday evening from Union county to be in attendance for Grange day at the fair tomorrow.

The hall was most tastefully decorated for the evening meeting of the league and the general decorations and banners on the street were fine.

TOMORROW AT THE FAIR GROUNDS

An All Day Program—Remember to Keep Your Coupons for Afternoon

Tomorrow is grange day at the fair and an all day program has been arranged for one admission price. Those attending the forenoon program should hold their coupons which will admit them to the grounds without further charge in the afternoon—if you don't produce your coupon you'll have to pay a second time.

The Grangers are going to have a parade at 9:30 in the morning on Main street and on to the fair grounds.

Geo. Bryning is master of ceremonies.

W. R. Gekler and C. D. Huffman will speak at the grounds sometime during the day.

The forenoon sports arranged are:

| | |
|--------------------------------|---------|
| Climbing greased pole..... | $ 3.00 |
| 100 yard foot race..... | 3.00 |
| Sack race..... | 3.00 |
| Tug of war, married men | |
| vs single men..... | 3.50 |
| Saddle horse race free for all | 10.00 |
| Wild mule race by the cow boys | |
| with three entries. | |

The chicken dinner at the Grange restaurant will have to be dispensed with. There will be dinner served, however, to all who desire to remain on the grounds.

There will be harness and running races in the afternoon similar to that on the printed program—at least three races and more performances by the cow boys, roping, the roman race, bucking horses.

Tomorrow promises to be the big day of the fair.

Judge Geo. E. Davis came in from Vale late last night to be in attendance upon circuit court.

AT THE FAIR.

As there was no place large enough to accommodate the crowd yesterday that all might attend the Development League meeting the overflow went to the fair grounds and had a very interesting time. There were two horse races and Messrs Jones and Whitney did some expert riding, bull-dogging a steer rode a wild bull and other such stunts.

This afternoon they have three running races including the Indian pony race, a harness race for two-year-olds and three cow boy events.

Now that the Development boosters are through The Times-Herald will devote more space to the fair and will endeavor to give the program complete for the following day each evening besides all the doings of the day on which it is published up to press time.

All aboard for the fair grounds.
