Scott Hayes and wife are up from Lawen. Mrs. Hayes has fully recovered from a recent operation.

Mrs. Millar has a fine lot of fall and winter millinery on display which the ladies should call and see at once.

Adam George was a business visitor Thursday and Friday. He will quit looking after fruit bugs for the winter, the county court deciding a fruit inspector unnecessary for that season of the year.

Dr. Milligan of Portland. Arms will be in Nov. 12 for the purpose of being regular pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Burns.

Both Dr. Holt and Dr. have visited this section and have many friends. It is expected that they will be interesting.

 Think of it, a Piano given away.
 James Lamphire is getting his new garage in shape for good work. He is installing some of the very best machinery and has competent workmen to take care of the auto business.
 Mrs. I. H. Holland, assisted by Mrs. Sam Mothershead and Mrs. Julian Byrd, gave a very pleasant card party at the home of the former Wednesday afternoon. A large company of lady friends were present. The high scores were made by Mrs. Davey, Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. McConnell.
 J. W. McGowan and The Times-Herald man went to the latter's mountain ranch last Sunday afternoon after some deer. Harry McHose had staked out for them but they had broken the rope and vanished into tall timber so the hunters had to be content with smaller game. We are inclined to think "Mac" is a "hoodoo" and his talk in his sleep was overheard by the deer.
 Sheriff Richardson and son Bert went over to the Huffman place Saturday and on Monday returned with Jesse Marshall who was indicted jointly with Orby Cooley for holding up the bartender in the saloon at Andrews. At the time of Cooley's arrest Marshall got away but Lon didn't intend this to be permanent so went back as soon as he had time and brought his prisoner in. He is now in jail where he will have to remain until the spring term of court unless he can secure bonds.
 Wm. Hanley and C. H. Leonard arrived home last Saturday afternoon from Portland and other points. Mr. Hanley had been absent for several weeks and Mr. Leonard for a shorter period. They came back by way of Bend and like others who have traveled over the road, pronounce it fine. Mr. Leonard saw the big 5-ton auto trucks that are going to be put on the route between here and Bend and states he feels confident they will deliver the goods.
 The Times-Herald is pleased to find a good interest taken in the Homer Davenport drawing contest now running in its columns. Several of our young people have sent in drawings some of which are very creditable. The prize for the best drawing of Joseph Chamberlain was awarded to Ormond Ausmus and he will be mailed a handsome artists proof of Mr. Davenport's sketch personally autographed. Among other drawings of special merit of this sketch are those of Alex Eggleston, age 15, of Sunset and Miss Cecile Sturges, age 17, of Riley. The Roosevelt prizes will be announced next week.

Fred Haines is in the city.

 John Benson, the John Day fruit man, is here with a lot of winter apples. See him at once.
 Road Master Emory Hill was in town this week attending court. He was accompanied by his wife.
 Mrs. Wm. Miller and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Egli, gave a delightful whist luncheon at the home of the former yesterday afternoon. An elegant luncheon was served followed by whist. Several tied for highest scores and had to cut the cards. Mrs. Levens and Mrs. Rembold were the successful ones. Dr. Elizabeth Ellis captured the consolation prize.
 The plasterers expect to complete their work on The Times-Herald new office building today. The finishing and painting will go forward as rapidly as workmen can push. The contractors could use more carpenters if they could be had, but skilled labor is in demand in this vicinity at the present. The scenery for the opera house on the second floor will be ready for installation as soon as that portion of the building is prepared to receive, as will also an emergency light plant. The only possible delay it would seem now to the opening of the play house on Thanksgiving is the chairs. These have been ordered through our local furniture dealer, Mr. Clevenger, and may yet be here in time.

Tomorrow.
 "Tomorrow," said the languid man.
 "I'll have my life insured, I guess. I know it is the safest plan. To save my children from distress."
 And when the morrow came around,
 They placed him gently in a box; At break of morning he was found
 As dead as Julius Caesar's ox. His widow now is scrubbing, floors, and washing shirts, And splitting wood, and doing fifty other chores,
 That she may rear her wailing brood.
 "Tomorrow," said the careless jay,
 "I'll take an hour, and make my will; And then if I should pass away, The wife and kids will know no ill."
 The morrow came, serene and nice,
 The weather mild, with signs of rain;
 The careless jay was placed on ice, Embalming fluid in his brain. Alas, alas, poor careless jay! The lawyers got his pile of cash; His wife is toiling night and day, To keep the kids in clothes and hash.
 Tomorrow is the ambushed walk Avoided by the circuspect,
 Tomorrow is the fatal rock On which a million ships are wrecked.
 Enough said. See EGGLESTON, The Oregon Life man.
