R. J. McKinnon left Sunday morning for California where he expects to spend the winter. Mr. McKinnon has kept pretty close to his fine little farm and orchard up the river for several years and is entitled to a good vacation which his many old time friends hope he will enjoy. His grandsons, Frank and Roy Clark, are looking after the farm and stock during his absence.

From present indications the Vale Enterprise is going to come within six months of guessing when the actual construction work on the railroad west will begin. Don't see anything in that to brag about. One "scoop" it failed to put under a "scare head" was that it looks like Nyssa was going to be the main line connection and Vale was going to be on a side track. That would have been a real "scoop" Brother Enterprise.

Vulcanizing at Gemberling's. ROLLED BARLEY & BALED HAY AT THE BUSY CORNER STORE.

Schenk & Williams have just received a fine lot of Overcoats and Mackinaws.

John Tackett of Harriman was a caller at The Times-Herald office this week.

C. H. Leonard received a telegram last Sunday announcing the death of his mother at the family home in Michigan. She was 68 years old and had been in poor health for some time. Mr. Leonard was back to see her three years ago.

PURE GOLD

Did you know that a 20-year endowment policy with the Oregon Life is pure gold? Did you know that a 20-year endowment policy with the Oregon Life gives you a safe place to deposit money, pays your wife and babies the amount you carry in event of your death, or if you live pays the amount to you at the end of 20 years? Unless you have the hooks in the "old man" who carries the scythe, it would be well to look into this matter deeper. Good insurance is the surest deal on earth. Consult
