THE LIBRARY BENEFIT.

Tonawama Theatre was simply packed last night with an exceptionally appreciative audience to witness the production staged by the Ladies' Afternoon Club for the benefit of the public library. It was one of the best entertainments ever witnessed and was very successfully carried out. The ladies in charge of the entertainment worked hard and are entitled to the praise and congratulations that were shown them by their many friends.

The excellent equipment of Tonawama was no small factor in making the affair a success, the stage effects being exceptionally good. This part of the entertainment was headed after by Stage Manager Carl Walker of Tonawama and much credit is due him and the house. There were ten changes of scene during the evening and Mr. Walker was equal to the occasion with very short intervals between.

The farce comedy "A Bachelor's Baby," created a lot of fun and put the house in a good humor. The selections from the opera "Spring Maid" were well rendered. Miss Myrtle Irving taking the solo in "The Loving Cup" most admirably and evoking generous applause. Mr. Johnson's rendition of "How I Love a Peppy Face" was highly appreciated. Mrs. J. L. Gault sang the solo part in "Fountain Song" with her usual excellence and the men's chorus "The Fountain Song Protective Institution" which follows the chorus so well to please very much. It was lively and full of action, the ladies forming in the rear and keeping time with the music with a steady file drill, finally leaving the stage with the gentlemen. "Two Little Love Bees," duet by Miss Hazel Gezal and Julius Byrd was well received. Miss Hazel Gezal's sweet girlish voice and is a natural born little actress. Mrs. Miller took a severe cold at the last moment and was unable to sing her solo in "Day Dreams" which was a great disappointment. The chorus work was done all the time with the music gracefully.

The little Highland dancers were generously cheered and the little ladies were compelled to respond until they were all out of breath.

The "Black face minstrel" made a decided hit and when the boys, Platt and "Curley" began singing "You Beautiful Doll" to Chapin, who was dressed in a woman, it brought the house down.

The living pictures, eight in number, were particularly pleasing features and some of the poses very difficult. Miss Leila Egli posed as "Spring"; Mrs. C. B. McConnell, "Summer"; Miss Josephine Locher, "Autumn"; Mrs. W. L. Blott, "Winter"; Mrs. H. Kelley, "Duchess of Devonshire"; Miss Agnes Miller, "Red Riding Hood"; Elsworth Egli, Carl Weller, Julian Byrd, "Spirit of '76"; Mrs. W. L. Marsden, Chas. W. Ellis, Miriam McConnell and Woodbridge Geary, "Home Keeping Hearts." The pictures were accompanied by appropriate vocal solos and musical selections.

Mrs. Rembold's work at the piano was up to her usual excellence and the violin solos by Mrs. Dodge highly appreciated.

Following is the complete program:
 Opening Overture - Piano Duo Mrs. Rembold, Miss Partridge
 Farce Comedy - "A Bachelor's Baby," An Artist, Platt T. Randall, His Sweetheart, Leila Egli, His Landlady, Mrs. Partridge; The Officer, Frank Dukey; Baby's Mother, Mrs. Miller.

WATER USERS ORGANIZE.

Last Tuesday afternoon some 30 water users along Shvies River met at the court house and effected a temporary organization and a call has been sent out for a general meeting at the same place this afternoon to perfect the organization and make it permanent.

This step was taken at the suggestion of the state Engineer to expedite matters in the final adjudication of the water rights along the stream which is to be taken up this spring by the State Board. It should have the hearty support of all the water users as it is the first step toward the change in affairs in this county and the forerunner of big irrigation projects that are to take hold of the water and distribute it over this great valley.

TRUCKS ARE ON ROAD.

W. S. Lockwood has been in the city since Wednesday becoming acquainted with the business men and talking freight. Mr. Lockwood has taken charge of the auto trucks and they are now on the road between here and Bend having struck some soft road over and Silver creek. They are delayed there but are expected in today.

Mr. Sawhill did not complete the deal by which he had expected to take the active control of the big freighters and Mr. Riggs, the Packard agent, made a deal with Mr. Lockwood who will conduct the business. He hopes to be making regular trips in the near future. About 35 tons of freight is now at the Bend warehouse for the machines.

PIANO RECITAL.

The piano pupils of Mrs. McHose will give a recital this afternoon at three o'clock at her studio. Only pupils are to be present. This is the first of a series of recitals that will be given each month in preparation for the public recital which will be given in June. The following is the program:

BILL AT TONAWAMA THURSDAY.

The "St. Patrick's" dance advertised for next Friday night has been changed to Thursday night instead owing to other social functions that conflicted. This is the first formal dancing party under Tonawama management and is planned rather more elaborate than is usual. It will be a public ball and very handsome souvenir programs will be furnished the dancers. Another feature will be the serving of fruit punch free to the guests and a smoking apartment with diversion for gentlemen who do not desire to dance all the numbers. There will also be a lady attendant in the dressing room.

This is not an invitation ball as some would infer by receiving an announcement through the mail. It is a public ball, the only restriction being that the guests be ladies and gentlemen. No boisterousness will be allowed and no one under the influence of intoxicants will be permitted to mingle with the guests.

Tonawama represents a considerable investment and the management is entitled to some revenue from the money it represents. The policy of the house was published at its opening and it will be carried out. Tonawama is at the service of the public and the management is ready to make concessions to public benefits and societies within reason. However, the regular holiday dates are not the proper times for such concessions. No one asks the storekeeper to give up his business for charity during Christmas week, nor do they ask professional services to devote their professional services to charity. We are all liberal in this city in this respect but too much is expected, it seems, from some and they fail to appreciate what is done.

Tonawama is not occupied all the time and there are intervals when public benefits may be given that will in no wise interfere with one's bread, for such functions are always liberally patronized and with concessions from the house just as much money can be made for the purpose intended.

Robert M. Duncan in this issue of our paper announces his candidacy for the republican nomination as the candidate for district attorney. Mr. Duncan is a member of the law firm of McCulloch, Solis & Duncan, and has been a deputy district attorney in Malheur county for more than three years. Last year when Mr. McCulloch was unable to attend court here, Mr. Duncan came over to assist the local deputy, and while here made many warm friends. He is an energetic, clean and capable young man; experienced and well qualified to fill the office to which he aspires. Should there be no candidate for the office in Harney county the members of his party will rally strong to his support. Mr. Leonard's private business would suffer should he decide to make the race and this he must consider. It is not definitely known whether Mr. Leonard will come or not, but if he is to decide to keep out Mr. Duncan will have a large support among the republicans of this county.
