BAKER STOCK SHIPPERS COMPLAIN.

Our local stock buyers are very much worked up over the present cattle market at the Portland Stock Yards. On February 12th there were thirteenth loads of cattle on the market from this part of the state; there were few offerings of fancy feeding that would bring from $5.90 to $5.95, while in South Omaha they were paying $7.70 for the best, and lowest prices for the day was better than our best, says a Bakei correspondent to the Rural Spirit.

Our cattle men say they will be compelled to ship all their best stuff to Missouri river points, if this continues. These men should sell at Portland and want to do so. It is there pride and ambition to see a big business built up at the Union Stock Yards, but they cannot do it at the expense of their customers. They are willing the packers, in case of heavy runs, should take off enough to pay for feed and yardage until the surplus can be worked off, but they cannot stand to have them pound the market like they have, just because they have the advantage and can. If these men once turn to the eastern market it will be hard to get them back soon. The Portland buyers will find their good stuff all gone and then they will have to pay dearly to get it back.

All these men want is fair treatment and a steady market; it is these radical changes that are ruining business. Why cannot the packers and the shippers get together and come to a stable basis? The success of one dedends on the other. If such an understanding could be had, the packers, averaging up the entire year, would get their supply just as cheaply, while shippers and feeders could work on a smaller margin and still be assured of a profit.

For rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it and see how quickly it gives relief. For sale by all dealers.
