Those coming in from Vale state that the railroad contractors are very active and preparing to rush the work on through to the Big Harney country as rapidly as possible. Chief Engineer Stradley was out there last week in conference with his local men.

The base ball game last Sunday afternoon was a good one between local teams. The Regulars defeated the Insurrectos but the latter are not satisfied and there is likely to be quite a rivalry between them for the entire season. A large crowd attended the game and was well entertained. The Tonawama band played on the street before the game.

A. A. Barry, of Sheridan, Wyo. who has been sojourning in our city the past month, has just received word from the men he has out looking up government land in south Malheur and Harney counties, and they report very favorably on the country. Mr. Barry intends going east in a few days to locate a number of families in both counties.—Vale Enterprise.

The poor editor was dying, but when the doctor placed his ear to the patient's heart, and muttered sadly "poor fellow, circulation almost gone," the editor raised himself and grasped "Tis false, we have the largest of any paper in the county," then sank back upon his pillow, with a triumphant smile upon his face. He was constant to the end, lying about his circulation.

The Tonawama band concert and harness matinee for tomorrow afternoon should bring out a good crowd. The weather man is going to be consulted respecting the sun shine and we are sure of the right order being sent in. If we don't have good weather the farmer will pay for what we lose in pleasure. Remember the band will begin playing between one and two o'clock and you are then to follow it down to the fair grounds, pay your 25 cents and then encore each number played besides see that the horses go at least two heats each—then you will have your money's worth and are at liberty to come home or go walking with your best girl.

It never pays to be too smart. An actor in a play said "My kingdom for a horse!" At this outburst, a smart young man in the audience exclaimed, "Won't a jackass fill the bill?" "Sure," said the actor, "Come, around to the back door of the stage!"

There is a saying that a man who squeezes a dollar never squeezes his wife. After glancing over his subscription books, a country editor is led to believe there are a number of good married women in this neighborhood who are not getting the attention they deserve says an old friend of ours on a neighboring newspaper.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness.
