If you say something discourteous about a citizen in the newspaper, he declares the paper circulates thru a dozen states, but the same man seldom believes in advertising, for he says, "people do not read the newspapers anyway."

The Tonawama Band rendered a most delightful band concert last Wednesday on main street to the largest number of spectators ever turned out. That these concerts are proving very popular is evident from the appreciation shown. The band rendered their first overture on this occasion and it was both well played and received.

As you move thru life let your influence be felt and your voice raised in behalf of dumb animals. They suffer like you, they hunger and thirst and wish for kinder treatment. They are helpless in the hands of man. God gave us dominion over animals that we might protect them and be aided and made happy by them. Be a lover of animals and help protect them and give them food and drink.

The next open air concert to be given by the Tonawama Band will be tomorrow afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30 on main street in front of the post office building. Concerts will be given twice a week after this on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons, at alternate places in the main business blocks. This will enable everyone to receive an equal benefit and leave no room for any complaint.

This paper is endeavoring to give its patrons the best service that is possible to give and all that the patronage will permit. Our paper is being frequently complimented on its appearance and the amount and kind of reading and advertisements it contains. Our citizens can make this paper still more effective by liberal patronage, both in subscriptions and advertising. The paper will always endeavor to merit the patronage.

It was at a dance recently that a dainty little miss we all know, was handsomely gowned in a very pretty light material, and when a very large and moisty perspiring gentleman asked to dance with her, she arose, but seeing his clammy hand and no gloves, modestly remarked: "Will you kindly use your handkerchief?" The big fellow stared blankly for a moment, then a light broke over his round, sweltering face, and he drew his handkerchief from his pocket and—blew his nose.

County Treasurer Lewis and R. J. Williams and wives have returned from their vacation trip to outside points. They visited Portland, Willamette Valley points, Walla Walla and the Yakima sections in Washington, having a very pleasant visit with relatives and old time friends. Mr. Lewis says the Washington sections visited are great grain producers but he is entirely content to live in Harney Valley where we have just as good land and lots of room. They were accompanied home by Miss Marie Beach of Portland, a niece of Mr. Williams, who will spend the vacation period here and Mrs. J. C. Garrett, the old pioneer lady, who will spend the summer here with her relatives.

Russell Smith arrived home last Saturday evening from a visit to outside points. He was with his brother Phil for a time at Heper Junction, also took in the Rose Festival at Portland. Phil has disposed of all his beef stuff and is expected home at once, having gone to Walla Walla and other points before coming in.

W. E. Huston has purchased the M. L. Lewis property which joins his homestead west of this city. The place is what is known as the "Miller Springs" and one of the finest building sections adjoining Burns. There is a fine large spring which runs sufficient water to irrigate several acres and Mr. Huston will develop the place, possibly cut it into small tracts later and sell them for homes. No nicer place for such purpose can be found in this vicinity.

T. J. Shields was over from Silver creek Wednesday. He informs The Times-Herald that his son Ernest has moved to Calgary and entered into a company there which will deal extensively in the brick making and building material. He is one of the best Harney county products ever turned out and will make a success. For some years he was with a very successful company at Spokane in the same business and he knows what he is about. He is associated with good business men who also understand the business—therefore is sure to make a go.
