A LAUDABLE ENTERPRISE

The Times-Herald is a money making institution, very true; if it wasn't the proprietor wouldn't be in the business—long. But dear readers, did you ever stop to consider that almost every dollar of the earnings of the business goes back into the institution, right in our stock of trade, such as buildings, new machinery, new type, new equipment of every description. The small surplus does not go into the coffers of someone for personal gain; it goes first for the improvement of the paper, which inures to your benefit also, and for the up-building of this town and county. The Times-Herald has labored indefatigably for the best interests of Burns and Harney County and the results of its labors have been very noticeable. In the space of time Burns has grown from a very small western prairie hamlet to a very creditable sized city with over a thousand population and blessed with several blocks of flourishing substantial business houses, managed by a coterie of business men who are the salt of the earth, generous, public spirited and possessed of marked business ability—on par with some of the most metropolitan cities in the state. All of this has been accomplished by consistent boosting, by not only the Times-Herald but by good live energetic foreseeing citizens and without the aid of railroads. The management of The Times-Herald is pleased to admit that it has been a success from a financial standpoint and why not, we have labored incessantly and under adverse circumstances. Personally, we have but our plant to show for it, but it is an institution of which Burns may feel proud, and will compare favorably with those of railroad towns five times the size.

However these strides have not been accomplished without appreciation by our patrons, as is evidenced by the fact that The Times-Herald has a large list of loyal subscribers and a volume of advertisements.

The Times-Herald has certainly endeavored to do its share toward the successful development of Burns and Harney County and we are proud of our efforts. We sincerely trust our friends and readers feel likewise.

The best way to encourage men and investors to come to our little city to invest their money and make friends among us, is to give them your encouragement and patronage in their respective line of business. We have here in Burns, a very creditable and modern laundry, the investment in capital approximately runs into the neighborhood of $4,000, which is maintained for the benefit of our citizens in general. The work turned out is cheaper in price than the same class of work done in Portland and other larger cities, and the workmanship is first class in every respect and deserves hearty support. This laundry is equipped to handle all the laundry in Burns, and certainly if we are desirous of encouraging our investors to locate here with us, and give us metropolitan accommodations, we should all show our appreciation by patronizing those who have and are making good. While we do not believe the Chinese laundry is handling the greatest amount of work, yet it would cease to exist if considerable amount of work was not accorded it. There is no reasonable or sufficient argument that can be advanced for patronizing one who sends his money out of the country in preference to one who invests it all here in business in your home town, and gives employment to your own people, who in turn, make their home here and distribute their yearly earnings along the different routes of their trade centers. Is it not reasonable to reflect and meditate whether or not your patronage ought to go to the man who lives and let live—or to the one who is hear today and gone tomorrow. Think it over.

Horse Races Tomorrow

Two match races are scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at the fair grounds, the first between Tom Stephens' colt and Neil Culver's saddle horse for a side bet of $100.00. Another is between Alex Hanley's horse and some stranger. Both should be good. Besides these there will be a saddle horse race for half the gate receipts as on last Sunday. Jack Johnson, the horse trainer is master of ceremonies and will preside at the gate where an admission of 25c for adults and 15c for children will be charged. There was a good attendance at the matinee races last Sunday afternoon and considerable interest shown. The races on tomorrow will be just as good or perhaps better. Chas. Bedell's "Seventy" won the match race last Sunday and Neil Culver's horse won the saddle race.

Burns Flour In Demand

Several large teams from outside towns loaded Burns flour at mill the last few days. It seldom happens that local flour is used as extensively as the flour made by the Burns Flour Milling Company and it is assisting in a community that is eradicating in every way to boost this home production. The Lawen Mercantile Co., must be doing a rushing business, as large team outfits are hauling flour to Lawen from Burns. "Hollar" your heads off for Burns flour—you help all the farmers when you do it. Everybody knows it is better than any outside flour but that is shipped in here and in a comparison of bread it can be seen anytime.

Pioneer People Dead.

The Times-Herald has just learned of the death of both Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dickenson, who resided here for many years but who a few years ago went to California to make their home. Mrs. Marion Wilson, a grand daughter, has written a note to this office which states that Mr. Dickenson passed away on April 2, last, after an illness of some period. Mrs. Dickenson died on June 22 from paralysis at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Hiserodt in Annabein, California. Mr. Dickenson was also a resident of that place at the time of his death. Mrs. Dickenson's death was a shock as she was apparently as well as ever two hours before. Both were 81 years old. These respected old people will be remembered by many old time residents of this city where they lived for about 17 years. Three of their sons live here, A. B. Dee and Ray Dickenson; Mrs. Marion Wilson and Mrs. Bert Hibbard are grand daughters.

Death Came Very Suddenly

Newall Hall, an old time pioneer of this section dropped dead Thursday morning at Hardisty station on Trout creek from heart disease. He was driving stage for the Kellogg Stage Co. and had driven in from Canyon City. He had eaten his breakfast and the team was hitched ready to continue the journey to Burns when he asked Mrs. Dillard to hold the team while he got a drink of water. He had gotten inside the yard fence when he suddenly dropped and from what can be learned his death was instantaneous.

There was no one there but Alie Dillard and his wife and they immediately telephoned in and asked for help and what to do. There was no inquest held as it was not deemed necessary. Mr. Hall had not complained in any way of feeling bad and his sudden demise was something of a shock to the Dillards. The remains were brought to Burns and the funeral was held yesterday morning from Clevenger's undertaking establishment.

Deceased was 60 years of age, having come here in the early '80. He had no relatives in this section, but we are informed had two sisters living in New Jersey. He had a nephew out here to visit him a few years ago. We are unable to learn much of Mr. Hall, altho he had resided here for at least 30 years, no one in the city is familiar with his movements before coming here. He was employed for years on the double O ranch under Isaac Foster and was known far and wide.

A Happy Man Indeed

The happiest man in the land today is the successful farmer. He sits under his own vine and fig tree undisturbed by the maddening noise of the city. Banks fail, railroads go into hands of receivers, booming towns collapse, all business stagnates. But the wise farmer can snap his fingers at these things. He is the monarch of all he surveys on all his broad acres. And the honesty of his boys and purity of his girls is guarded against all temptation, and in them he has given the country its best manhood and womanhood. The farmer is to be envied and if he is not contented with his lot, he is lacking in wisdom.

Lakeview Delegates Selected

At the regular monthly meeting of the Burns Commercial Club last Tuesday evening the coming meeting of the Central Oregon Development League at Lakeview was given much consideration and the delegates named. It was not known definitely how many could go and therefore 50 names were selected from which it is hoped at least twenty-five may be able to attend. As a matter of fact the entire fifty want to go and from the interest taken it is quite likely there will be one of the largest delegations ever sent from Burns to any public gathering of a like nature will go to Lakeview. The following names were selected:

Wm. Miller, L. R. Breithaupt, Sam Mothershead, R. T. Hugnet, Wm. Farre, J. P. Rector, Geo. A. Smith, Sid. Comegys, E. P. Sylvester, C. A. Haines, Grant Thompson, Fred Haines, C. H. Leonard, J. F. The oil prospect found in the Red S field of the P. L. S. The drill machine has been taken back to the well and will go deeper.

J. L. Gault of the First National Bank left this morning in company with I. H. Holland, he will go with Mr. Holland as far as the Agency and after a day or two of fishing there will proceed on to Spokane where he will meet Mrs. Gault and the boys and together they will visit coast points before returning home the last of this month. Mrs. Gault and sons have been visiting in the east and Middle western sections since June.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it.
