FRANK JACKSON.

The Times-Herald regrets to note a tendency of destructiveness among the younger boys of Burns. They go into the yards and orchards at night and strip trees of fruit. This should be stopped as people take considerable pride in the small amount of fruit they raise and to have it destroyed by the boys before it is ripe is very annoying.

Lute Parker is having a nice residence erected on his lots in south Burns.

I am not responsible for any of M. Schenk's private obligations—Fred Williams.
