See the big double show at Tonawama tomorrow night. An illustrated song will be a feature and all the necessary "traps" and music will accompany each picture. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Mayor Clevenger was out to his farm yesterday and brought in some of the finest turnips we have seen this season and they were raised without a drop of irrigation. His grain yield was enormous, the oats being quite heavy averaging 41 pounds to the bushel.

The public school of this city opened Thursday and the children have all been assigned their studies. Next week will see the school got down to the regular schedule and begin to accomplish something. The new building and surroundings are so pleasant that the pupils have no excuse for not advancing rapidly.

Threshing continues in this vicinity. The yields are up to expectations and if there was a market for the products Harney county farmers would be in clover. As it is he is not flushed with money but he has the products that is the equivalent. The Times-Herald would suggest hogs—hogs are what will bring prosperity to this section in short order with the least capital invested.

MOTHERSHEAD & DONEGAN.

Harney county farmers, who by the way settle the bills should take advantage of the agricultural short course to be given at the county high school this winter and make the best of things. They also should try to work Mr. Breithaupt of the Experiment Station a little harder. He don't mind it and will be glad to assist the farmer.

J. R. Robertson who recently purchased a section of land on Prather Creek from the Oregon & Western Colonization Co., where he will engage in general stock raising, dairying and farming arrived here last night. He was accompanied by Oscar R. Anderson, R. W. Lamb and O. Ulrich, all of whom desire land in this big growing country.

C. E. Thomas of Chicago, one of the firm of Thomas & Walters, was in the city a few days this week looking after some business matters respecting water rights on Trout Creek. Mr. Thomas is one of the original owners of the big tract in that district formerly known as the Sisson ranch and which has since been subdivided and sold to small farmers. He left on his return yesterday morning.

The Margaret Iles Dramatic Co., who closed a very successful engagement at Tonawama on Monday evening, will return to this city for two nights only, Oct. 27 and 28 on their return south. They will have two of the best bills in their repertoire for their Burns friends and should be greeted by full houses. W. W. Robertson, a newspaper man of North Yakima, was here this week having come over with Frank Clerf from Alvord where he has been visiting. Mr. Robertson is one of the successful newspaper men of the northwest and is making good in his section. He is a very entertaining gentleman and this shop enjoyed a visit with him.

The Harney County National Bank is now making delivery of the imported thoroughbred sows to the farmers. The hogs have been well cared for during the past two months and are in the pink of condition. This means a bright future for pork raising in Harney County, and the bank is truly a home institution by financing farmers in such a way.

Jonathan Bourne has entered the race as a candidate for U. S. Senator to succeed himself. He is running as a progressive government candidate, making four in the field. Mr. Bourne has a certain following which will support him; Selling has others of the republicans that will stay with the regular nominee and Clark of the Bull Moose camp will poll some votes. This leaves the matter on a safe betting basis that Dr. Harry Lane of Portland, the Democratic candidate will receive a plurality of the votes cast and will be elected by the legislature as Senator from Oregon.

The fair board is considering the advisability of parking the west side of the grounds, putting out some nice, quick growing shade trees, and plowing up the infield and seeding to grass of some character. It is a good move. Burns needs a park and this would be an ideal place for one. Arrangements will be made to have the trees irrigated the first year or so to give them a good start and with a band stand in the center it would be an ideal place for the people of Burns to spend warm afternoons. The infield should be put to use, as it is an eye sore as it is now all grown up in weeds, but with a little work and the necessary finances it could be made more sightly as well as profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clerf of the Alvord ranch came to Burns on Sunday. Mrs. Clerf's visit to the metropolis was her first in two years. While here she made final proof on her desert land claim.

B. P. Bennett and wife arrived here last Sunday from Freeport, Maine, where they have been residing for the past two years. Mr. Bennett's health was not good back there so they returned to Burns where they expect to remain permanently. This estimable old couple have many friends here who are glad to welcome them back.

The Ladies' Saturday Afternoon 500 Club held their Annual business meeting, at the home of the President, Mrs. Julian Byrd, Wednesday, Oct. 9th. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Isaac Schwartz; Vice-President, Mrs. John Gemberling; Secretary, Dr. Elizabeth Ellis; Treasurer, Mrs. C. F. McKinney.

GRASS SEED—I have a fine lot of timothy, red top and clover seed threshed this season. This seed is acclimated and best quality, mixed in right proportions for seeding meadows. Will deliver at that price at Burns during fair week or fill orders sent me before that date. Write me at Drewsey—W. T. VANDER-VEER.

A big double show has been arranged for tomorrow night at Tonawama. There will be six reels—6000 feet of film—which includes some good comedy and fine dramatic work. Carl Welker will sing an illustrated song. Appropriate music will accompany each film and they are made as real as possible. The prices for this performance will be 25c and 15c.

Among those from the southern part of the county to visit us during the fair and for court business were Adam, Lou, Dave and Dell Deffenbaugh. These brothers are all interested in land on Trout Creek in the Denio section where there is a movement to try and settle water rights. Some of the boys came to the county with the writer and family some 30 years ago and it was the first time he had met Adam since their arrival in 1883.

The railroad now being built into the Harney county has given impetus to irrigation work in this section and we will see some definite moves made in that direction during the next few months and projects launched in time to take up active work in the spring.

Dr. Babbidge sent a card to the manager of this great religious weekly yesterday stating that Eemerey, Wallowa county, seemed nearer the north pole than here as the snow was down quite close and he would have to hurry back to thaw out. The Doctor is there to attend Presbytery.

Impounded—The city marshal has taken up a brown mare about 17 years old, branded W. V. on left shoulder and G. H. on right shoulder. The animal was formerly owned by Lee Wiseman. Owner must come and get her, pay all charges or the animal will be sold in accordance with the law governing such impounded animals.

John Back was in from his dairy farm today and states that the Angora goats he recently imported from the Willamette Valley are doing fine on the range along Prather Creek. He finds that the coyotes do not molest them and if they stand the winter weather well it would be a fine thing to get more of them in this county.

The electric light plant was started up on the first of this month and has been giving good service since. It is quite a convenience to the many patrons and brightens up the town considerably. It is being handled in good shape and giving far better service than ever before and in one respect particularly. Heretofore when the picture show was running it dimmed the lights all over town. Now it is being used by the Tonawama pictures and the slight difference when the pictures are on is hardly noticeable.

J. F. Williamson, at one time actively engaged in the sheep business in this county in partnership with Bill Jones, has been in the city for several days doing jury duty. He has been excused for the term and expects to leave tomorrow for his home in the southern part of the county. Mr. Williamson is much disappointed in his former partner and friend Bill, as he contemplates matrimony. Mr. Williamson says Bill used to be a good fellow, energetic and would get up early in the morning, but now he lags, he is getting society habits, stays in bed late and altogether disgracing himself by such actions.
