If the present plans don't fail to materialize, the Tonawama Band will render their first indoor concert at the Tonawama hall on the evening of Nov. 1st. This promises to be the best concert yet put on by the boys, and consists of an excellent number of up to date and popular musical concert numbers. After the concert the evening will be devoted to a social dance, and everyone should make arrangements to enjoy the evening with the Tonawama Band.

John Back informs The Times-Herald that he had disposed of all his Jersey cattle recently brought in from the Willamette Valley to local people. This is the second shipment of dairy stock he has disposed of and we are getting quite a number of this class of cows in this vicinity. It will be only a matter of getting together now and starting a creamery. This should be done for every winter it is necessary to ship in creamery butter and it is time we kept this money at home.

Friends have received the announcement of the marriage of Frank P. Gowan and Miss Hazel Hale, at Heper on Oct. 10. They left immediately following the ceremony for Portland on a wedding tour. Both are well known here, Frank being the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gowan and has made his home here since boyhood. The bride is a sister to Mrs. Fred Clingan and visited her sister here for a year. We understand the young people will make their home in this city. We extend best wishes.

A telegram received on Thursday announces that Dr. W. L. Marsden is not improving as rapidly as desired and Mrs. Marsden has asked Dr. Griffith to come down to Los Angeles. The Doctor does not like to leave his partner and friend and will therefore leave tomorrow morning for California to be at the bedside of his friend. Dr. Marsden is not considered in any danger, yet his condition is not satisfactory and Dr. Griffith will remain with him until he is on the road to recovery and sufficiently gained in strength to justify his returning home.

John Seethoff and his sons have returned from Bend where they went to get their families and household goods. They are now permanently domiciled on the big tract of land recently purchased from the Oregon & Western Colonization Co., adjoining Burns. Mr. Seethoff will leave in a few days for New Salem, North Dakota, to be gone for a few months to settle up his business affairs there and expects to return to this place some time in January. His sons will at once begin getting out and hauling stone for the big comfortable stone residence to be erected in the near future on the big farm they have purchased and are preparing to develop.

Died—At the hospital in this city Thursday, Oct. 17th, Lucinda Rowe, aged 68 years. Deceased had been an invalid for the past seven years and her death came as a relief to her long suffering. Mrs. Rowe came here with her daughters 12 years ago and had since made her home in this county. She was the mother of Mrs. Martha Sagers and Mrs. Ed. Springer. Geo. and Van Curtis were brothers. She is also survived by three other brothers and a sister, the latter a resident of Portland. Two other children, Ed Walter by a former marriage, living in Canada, and a daughter, Mrs. Esther Roush in Texas.
