In an opinion rendered Attorney General Crawford holds that under the construction of the statute, initiative law goes into effect just as soon as a majority vote is cast in favor of it. The opinion was rendered in response to an inquiry from Secretary of State Oleott as to whether the woman suffrage law is now in effect. The Attorney-General says it is, and that the canvas of the vote and the Governor's proclamation are only evidences of it being in effect.

The women are going to get a vote sooner than expected in this city. The Mothers' Club has decided to give a prize for the most beautiful lady attending their thanksgiving ball next Wednesday night. There will also be a prize for the handsomest man in attendance and the ladies present are to vote as to the good looks of the men present. The manager of this great religious weekly wants both Ike Schwartz and Salisbury barred and under such conditions wishes to announce that he is a candidate.

Died—In this city Wednesday night, Charles Kaiser, aged 52 years. Deceased was a native of Germany and had resided in this section for many years. At one time Mr. Kaiser was in the butcher business in this city but of recent years he had been associated with Thos. Jenkins in the Brewery saloon. He has had poor health for over a year and his death was not entirely unsuspected, however, he was able to be out at his place of business for some time. Mr. Kaiser is survived by two sisters in Germany. The funeral was held yesterday morning, interment being made in the Burns cemetery.

The cook book recently gotten out by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid may be purchased at the Welcome Pharmacy, the I. Schwartz store or at Miss Winter's confectionery. The Times-Herald man has not yet received a copy of this valuable book and cannot make any extended comment on its merits but it was published by a "bunch" of mighty good cooks and is no doubt worth twice the price asked for it.

Owing to a telegram calling Carl Welker away to report for duty in his new government position at Honolulu "The Girl of the Golden West" will not be staged by the Tonawama Stock Co. on the date announced last issue, Mr. Welker's unexpected departure has made it necessary to change the cast and those taking part desire to have it well in hand before making a definite announcement of the date of production.

The people of Harney County have many things to be thankful for and there are few, if any, counties that have enjoyed greater prosperity during the past year. We can all eat turkey on Thanksgiving and look forward to even better times in the future for we are just coming into our own. More people are coming in to Harney county to make homes and with the many big things in store for the country in the way of development we may expect these changes to bring with them more conveniences, a greater market for our products and a better contented people.

A fine program of pictures has been received for the usual performance at Tonawama tonight and tomorrow night. A war story that will interest the children will be shown tonight as well as a comedy introducing the "Midget" for the first time here. There is also an interesting Indian picture story. Tomorrow night there will be five reels as usual with comedy and strong dramatic features. There will be no disappointment to patrons tonight as the films have already been received. The change in the schedule of the stage has made it necessary to get the films in at an earlier date and this will be looked after in future to the end that the regular picture programs will be given as advertised.

W. C. Hoover and family and W. C. Nywert and family arrived here from Buhl, Idaho, the fore part of this week and have rented a house in this city. They have come here to remain permanently. Mr. Hoover was a resident of the Lawen neighborhood for a number of years but went to Tennessee a few years ago with the intention of making his home and was told by the writer that he would be back in Harney county before many years. The prediction was right. Mr. Hoover remained in the south but a short time, coming back to Idaho for a while then back to his former home. Mr. Syster desires to enter some land in this section in the spring and become a permanent resident.

The bazar and dancing party given at Tonawama last night by the domestic science department of the county high school was a decided success in every particular and the young ladies are receiving the congratulations of their many friends. They had various booths where coffee, tea, cake, home made candy and ice cream were sold. Each of these were presided over by young ladies appropriately costumed and as the booths were tastefully decorated was quite novel. They had more orders for fruit cakes for Thanksgiving period than they could fill. The candy was excellent. The dance was well conducted by the young people and everything passed off with the best of decorum.
