WHEREAS, The farmers of Harney County who have been so fortunate as to be present in Burns the past week and witnessed the practical instruction imparted by Professors Scudder and Potter, both verbally and by illustration; also the housewives of the county and their daughters who have been under the instruction of Mrs. Calvin and Miss Irwin, have derived an incalculable benefit form the experience, a benefit that will be felt on every farm in every part of Harney County.

RESOLVED, That we hereby express our keen appreciation of the visit of these accomplished teachers from the Oregon Agricultural College and heartily commend the spirit displayed by them and by the authorities of the College in the worthy aim of carrying needed information to the doors of the farmers, to the end that Agriculture may be made profitable, may become certain in its results and enticing to those engaged in it and to the youths who look to it as a future business; also for the other pleasing purpose of making home life more pleasant, more healthful and less expensive.

RESOLVED, That our thanks are also extended to the people of Burns for the kind and hospitable manner in which they have provided for the accomodation of the large crowd of visitors; to Hon. Wm. Hanley for throwing open his suburban home to our free use; to the managers of the Tonawama building for its use; to the Burns Band and to the singers for their fine entertainment, and to the press of the city for its efforts in promoting and reporting this great gathering.

RESOLVED, That we sincerely hope this kind of instruction will be continued and that such Short Courses as this will become annual events, to be held at such times of year as will insure the largest attendance with the least expense and inconvenience to those participating and the least trouble to their entertainers.

Additional resolution introduced by L. C. Rhodes of Drewsey:

WHEREAS, The importance of the Agricultural and Domestic Science courses in the Harney County High School and their relation to the advancement and development of Harney County being fully realized since witnessing the profitable results of the short course during the past week, and

WHEREAS, The present quarters of the High School are inadequate and lack proper facilities for laboratory and demonstration work, as well as comfortable class rooms, this being disclosed upon a visit to the present building by farmers attending the short course during the week be it

RESOLVED, That we are heartily in favor of and hereby recommend that the authorities at once prepare to erect a suitable High School Building of ample capacity for Agriculture, Domestic Science and the general educational lines carried on by the school, that it may be profitable to the increased numbers that are to take advantage of it in the immediate future, and a credit to Harney County.

Ladies' Library Club.

(Communicated)

The second meeting of the February Group of the Ladies Library Club was at the home of Miss Locher, Feb. 22nd 1913. General subject: "Women of 19th Century." Mrs. Julian Byrd presented her subject "Women in the Profession" in an exhaustive paper ranging through medicine, law, theology, literature, art and music, interspersed with delightful sketches of the pioneer days of such women as Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, Florence Nightengale, Clara Barton, Lucretia Mott, Catharine Beecher Stowe, Rosa Bonheur, George Elliott, Adaline Patti, and Mlle. Chaminade. Mrs. Byrd closed her delightful paper by expressing the thought that each day sees new achievements by woman who is slowly but surely taking her place by the side of her brothers.

Mrs. G. A. Rembold gave The Flatterer, by Chaminade.

Mrs. Charles Rohn wrote in a pleasing manner on "The Emancipation of Woman," covering the life work of pioneers in the woman suffrage cause such women as Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Belva Lockwood on down to our own day with Dr. Annie Shaw, president of the Federal Clubs, and Abigail Scott Dunaway, Oregon's most prominent suffragist and earnest worker in the cause.
