Died—Monday, March 10th, at the home of Mrs. Walter Cross in this city, Samuel Roach, aged 74 years. Deceased had been sick for some time and was brought to this city for medical treatment about a month ago. Deceased had been a resident of this country for many years and was at one time engaged in black-smithing business at Harney but for about 20 years he had been making his home on Trout Creek where he had mining interests. He also owned a homestead near the mine and during the summer season devoted much of his time to raising vegetables. He has besides this some personal property. Mr. Roach was a peculiar man and was persistent in his quest for gold at the Trout Creek mines. He was not married but had a niece in England to whom he left his property. She was out on a visit to her uncle a few years ago and tried to induce him to return to England and make his home but Mr. Roach preferred to remain at the mines, promising her when he struck the gold he knew was there he would come to her. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Baptist church, Rev. Cornelius Beebe conducting the service.
