Judge and Mrs. Grant Thompson came up from their home near Waverly Tuesday bringing their daughters, Mrs. Grover Jameson and Mrs. Chester Dalton, who had been visiting the parental home for a few days. They came up in the new auto, making the trip in about two hours and the Judge says he seems much nearer town now than formerly.

W. E. Huston may be found at his place of business constantly now and ready to make some good prices to those wanting goods in his line.

The three-reel feature, "The Lady of The Lake" will be seen at Tonawama next Wednesday night. This is described as one of the finest picture plays ever produced and should be seen by the people of Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Schwartz entertained a few neighbors at their hospitable home last Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Henry Holland and daughter. Cards were indulged in for a time, the table honors going to Mrs. Murray and Dr. Griffith. A pretty souvenir was presented to Mrs. Holland which she prizes highly. Some music and dancing completed a very enjoyable evening after refreshments had been served.

The Times-Herald is in receipt of a very interesting and well written communication from J. C. "Pat" Cecil, outlining the work of the Fifth Annual Commonwealth Conference which was held at the University at Eugene May 16 and 17. The manager of this paper received a very urgent invitation to be present but as the invite reached him on the 19th, two days after the conference closed, he could not have taken advantage of it had he been able otherwise. "Pat's" letter is too lengthy to appear in this issue but will be published in the next.

High School Alumni

A happy gathering of the Harney County High School alumni held a most enjoyable reunion at Tonawama on Thursday evening. Every class from the beginning of the school was represented and those present report having had "some fun," not the least interesting being the "initiation" of the members of the present graduating class. The members were made to do various "stunts" before they were declared entitled eligible to membership in the alumni.

They played games, several musical selections were rendered including selections by the High School Glee Club and then danced for a short time. Refreshments were served. A few out of town members were present, the entire class of 1906, the first to graduate, were there. This class was the smallest in the history of the school, Neil Smith and Mrs. Alma Davis being the entire class.

Fish are Scarce.

Game Warden Mace and W. R. Heck returned yesterday evening from a tour of the trout streams up in the mountains and report that fish are not nearly so plentiful as in former years. It had been said that some dams in the streams were not properly provided with ladders to permit the fish going up but this was found to be a mistake after an investigation by Mr. Mace. He found all dams properly equipped and no obstructions in the way.

There seems to be no solution advanced for the scarcity of fish in Emigrant and Spring Creeks, as they have been considered exceptionally good trout streams. Some very good catches are being made in the river in this vicinity but it isn't such sport as the smaller fish of the mountain streams.

J. M. Hoffeditz was up from Valley View last night to witness the graduating exercises and was accompanied home today by his daughter, Miss Florence, who has been attending high school.

Presbyterian Church Tomorrow.

Union Church Services, 11 a. m., at the Presbyterian Church.
