Irving Miller arrived from Portland Monday bringing Judge Miller's new auto. The manager of this great religious weekly is not financially able to own a car, therefore he is mighty well pleased to see a good friend and neighbor get one as he stands a chance of a ride occasionally. It is one of the handsomest cars owned in Burns and it will certainly be a pleasure to ride in it.

You will find IT at the Burns Department Store.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. California has experienced a drouth and live stock is selling cheap as there is no feed and owners are anxious to have them taken away. Lake county farmers have the dairy fever according to the Examiner and many of them are taking advantage of the unfortunate owners in California to secure cheap dairy herds. They are securing some fine stock at very reasonable figures. Lakeview is the location of a new creamery and the farmers will be prepared to furnish it with considerable cream.

The many friends and admirers of Miss Mamie Winters are pleased to learn that she has been recommended as post mistress at Burns. The appointment has not yet been made but there is every reason to believe it will be at once as J. E. Loggan has asked the department to relieve him June 1. Mr. Loggan has purchased Sam Mothershead's interest in the real estate and insurance business of Mothershead & Donegan and expects to take charge of the office the first. Mr. Loggan has made one of the most satisfactory post masters Burns has ever had and he leaves the office with the best wishes of practically every patron. Miss Winters, who is to succeed him, is a very capable and deserving young lady who will certainly be satisfactory. It isn't likely she will be ready to take charge of the office by the first as her bond and the many sundry affairs incident to a change must be looked after first.
