Frank Triake received a telegram announcing the death of his father on July 4 at the family home in Wisconsin. Deceased had not been ill any length of time as Mr. Triake had received a letter the same day the telegram reached him from his father who wrote of a fishing trip he had been on and no intimation in the letter that he was not in the best of health.

Mesdames Pearl Fisk and Vera Welker have purchased the ice cream parlors and confectionery store formerly conducted by Miss Mamie Winters, who has assumed her duties as post mistress. The new owners are having the rooms occupied remodeled and arranged more conveniently for the business and as soon as the workman have completed the improvements will have a very attractive place.

James K. Furgeson and Ira D. Pyle, of Santa Rosa, California, were in Burns this week, representing the Chamber of Commerce of that city. They had been provided with an auto appropriately labeled and their purpose is to advertise the advantages and resources of Santa Rosa. They expect to cover a wide territory in their advertising campaign and no doubt their city will be amply repaid for the expenditure.

P. J. Gallagher, who delivered the oration at the 4th of July celebration at Harriman, reports they had a fine time there at the celebration and it was a very patriotic and well behaved crowd. By actual count there were more than 390 people present and the men who were instrumental in getting up the celebration were equal to the occasion, proving themselves to be fine hosts. The dance was largely attended and most thoroughly enjoyed by those who took part.

The snake editor of this great religious weekly is always (no almost always) pleased with some sensational piece of news that gives one a thrill, but "Butch" Hansen's run-away team on Thursday afternoon is an exception to the rule. The meanest part of it was that the team ran away while the snake editor was out of town visiting his old time friend and "sport" Chas. Wilson. That very same team had run away twice before this week and had never once come near The Times-Herald or given us a hint they were up to any capers whatever, but taking advantage of his absence they started in to make a "rough house" in this block, scaring the wits out of P. J. Gallagher who was close to the front entrance of the building where the team was trying to get up stairs to witness a vaudeville rehearsal, but they didn't make it. They did succeed in getting on the concrete walk and take away the glass electric sign of Tonawama, but they didn't even break the glass on the outside, merely smashing two of the light globes, taking the post support at the outside edge of the walk and proceeded on up to the Summit hotel. There the team attempted another stunt but the entrance is somewhat elevated and they missed their calculations. The team stalled there and was caught, neither horse being hurt or the rig anyway injured from the experience. There will be the usual picture show together with a one act playlet entitled "Two Jolly Bachelor Girls" at Tonawama tonight, so don't be deceived if we do not get that sign up and you see no light at the entrance, for there is going to be a good show and it will be followed by a social dance for which Mrs. Murray will play. If the crowd is not up to expectations "Butch's" team will be sued for damages for knocking that sign down.

A. H. Curry, the stage man from Harriman, spent several days in Burns this week attending to some business.

Miss Lou Davey was a passenger out yesterday via Prairie City on her way to visit relatives in Baker County.

Miss Leila Egli has returned to the farm near Wagontire after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Burns during the celebration period.

George James was down from Harney Thursday renewing acquaintances and looking after business matters. He reports crops looking fine.

Miss Mamie Winters and her mother have moved into a resident in the block east of the post office where they will keep house and Mrs. Winters can be more homelike.

W. T. VanderVeer was in town this week with a fine lot of Strawberries grown on his Pine Creek ranch. He found a ready market for them in Burns and will likely bring over more in the immediate future.

Mrs. Geo. Hatt left on the auto yesterday morning en route to Seattle in response to a telegram that her mother was seriously ill. She was brought over from her home near Princeton by James Mahon in his auto.

Mrs. Henry Dalton and little sons have returned from Vale where they spent a few weeks visiting relatives. They had a very pleasant visit and feel quite rested from their journey. They were brought in by Marion Horton in his auto.

The Times-Herald is informed that Harold Handcock was shot and killed at Plush on the morning of the 4th by a man named Highfield. The victim was shot four times. Deceased was formerly a resident of this place and was quite well known to several of our people. We have not received any particulars.

The Times-Herald office has been instrumental in assisting to equip the printing office for the paper at Juntura which P. J. Gallagher and A. M. Byrd are going to start. A nice series of display type, paper cutter, rules, etc, was taken from this office and the boys will start off with a very complete equipment for a small plant.

Curtis Smith and his mother, Mrs. C. G. Smith, arrived home Thursday evening by way of Bend from a vacation trip to outside points. Curtis and wife spent a month visiting in Portland and Willamette Valley points while Mrs. Smith Sr. visited her old home in California. Mrs. Smith Jr. came by way of Canyon and will remain there for a few weeks visiting her father, V. G. Cozad, and other relatives.
