Sheriff Richardson and C. H. Leonard returned Thursday from a trip to Boise and Snake River points. They report all very quiet in that section, and that the many recent water spouts in Malheur County have left the roads in a bad shape.

Dr. Griffith removed a finger from the hand of Joe Hardy the other day. Mr. Hardy is a sheep man of the Steens Mountain section and is suffering from a very unusual and peculiar disease known to the medical profession as Raynand's disease. It affects the blood vessels and had caused a peculiar numbness of the fingers, in fact the circulation was practically stopped with the result that one finger had to be removed.

The statement of condition of the Harney County National Bank as rendered to the Comptroller of Currency and published in this issue, shows its usual splendid condition; that "Your Home Institution" is taking care of its patrons by expanding its loans during the haying and crop moving season, without effecting its well known conservative policy. This bank shows the largest individual deposits and its earned surplus has been increased to $40,000.00.

Zoeth Houser, Ex-United States Marshal of Oregon, arrived here Thursday evening from his home in Umatilla county for the purpose of buying some cattle if he finds the class he desires at what he considers right prices. Mr. Houser has vast alfalfa fields in his home county and each year he comes to this section and buys stock to feed and put in shape for the market. He is well known to the stock men of this county where he has operated for several years.

If the manager of this religious weekly wasn't such an expensive cuss its readers would be better off if he were kept away from home more. The Times-Herald was quite a decent sheet last issue and he congratulates the force. He returned, like a bad penny, Thursday evening and is again on the job. He'll tell something of his visit in the next issue. He left Mrs. Byrd and the "flock" quite well, the process of straightening Evelyn's teeth progressing very satisfactorily.

Wm. Hanley, James Donegan and family and Mrs. Frank Welcome left this morning for Bend being en route to the Development League meeting at Klamath. They will take the train at Bend and go by way of Portland, spending a short time visiting friends and relatives during their absence. Mr. Hanley received a wire from C. C. Chapman yesterday stating that Secy. of Interior Lane would be in Portland and had promised to attend the league meeting at Klamath, therefore Mr. Chapman desired that Mr. Hanley, as president of the league, come by Portland and accompany the cabinet officer on the trip down.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of' it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers.
