High School Notes. BY THE SENIORS. The following program by the Literary society was rendered on Friday, Oct. 17, 1913 and was much enjoyed by all.

The Customer's Viewpoint. It is idle folly for the merchant to go at the problem of business building with considering the customer's viewpoint.

SEMI-ANNUAL STATEMENT. Of the Clerk of Harney County, State of Oregon, showing the amount of claims allowed by the County Court of said County and State, for what purpose allowed, the amount of warrants drawn from 31st day of March, 1913, to the 30th day of September, 1913, inclusive, and the amount of warrants outstanding and unpaid September 30th, 1913.

There is nothing more useful for the advertiser than to put himself in the customer's place and get the customer's vision of things. The advertiser thus learns why the customer wants the goods and why he buys the goods.

SEMI-ANNUAL STATEMENT. Showing all taxes collected and turned over to the County Treasurer, by A. K. Richardson, Sheriff, from April 1st, 1912 to September 30th, 1913.

Don't ask your home merchant for credit and then complain because you have been over charged. If you want credit, get it at the bank or some eastern mail order house.

SEMI-ANNUAL STATEMENT. Showing all taxes collected and turned over to the County Treasurer, by A. K. Richardson, Sheriff, from April 1st, 1912 to September 30th, 1913.

Mrs. Etta Cummins has added a very neat and accommodating preparation room to the surgery at her hospital. V. L. Snelling and wife of Lakeview, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. M. Faulkner, in this city.

A meeting of the Rod and Gun Club was held at The Times-Herald office last night for the purpose of recommending a suitable man for game warden. This was done at the urgent request of the State Game Commission.
