 The Blue Mt. Eagle boys are bragging about dandelions being in bloom over in their town, but we can go them some better. If they'll step into The Times-Herald we'll present them with some very handsome roses in full bloom.
 Rev. Dr. Babbidge of the Valley View section, who performed the marriage ceremony joining Miss Nena Haarstrich and T. S. Steven in wedlock, sends in a report to this paper. The ring ceremony was used and impressively entered into by the contracting parties. Following the marriage, Dr. Babbidge states a very pretty baptismal ceremony was performed when Mr. and Mrs. James Paul presented their young daughters for baptism. Mr. and Mrs. Haarstrich stood as God-father and God-mother for the children.
 Mild cases of measles have made their appearance in three families in Burns, preventing the children from attending school, all of the homes having been placed under quarantine. Evelyn Byrd, Annette Leonard and Belda Schwartz being the victims. The other two children of the "Byrd flock" have not taken them as yet and it was a mere accident that it was discovered to be measles, as there have been a few cases of chickenpox and when the family physician was called over the phone he said it was certainly chickenpox as he had heard of no cases of measles. However, he was invited to call at the Byrd home and make sure when he found measles.

 The first alphabetical half of the Five Hundred Club gave a party at the Masonic hall Thursday night at which the other half and the husbands and a few friends were the guests. There were ten tables filled by a happy company and those present report having a very pleasant evening. The high honors were awarded to Mrs. H. C. Levens and Mrs. C. F. McKinney and for the gentlemen, A. C. Welcome and Judge Wm. Miller. A nice luncheon followed the hands.
 The U. S. Land office is now located in The Times-Herald building having moved to the new quarters the first of this week. It had been the intention to move Jan. 1st but the vault door was delayed and thus prevented the occupancy of the rooms. The office now has adequate room and convenience for the transaction of its business with an enlarged counter and desk rooms, a contest room, large vault where the records may be safely stored at night. The latter will be equipped with omnibus trucks containing steel shelves for the records, another convenience that will be much appreciated, as soon as they arrive from the factory where they were constructed. Messrs. Donegan & Loggan and the Harney County Abstract Co. will occupy the quarters vacated by the land office which is to be thoroughly overhauled and arranged for their business.

For Sale—One Sawmill complete, with logging Sleds and Trucks, with or without timber, for terms see H. M. Horton.
 Although notice of the call for reports of condition of National Banks on January 13 was not received by the First National Bank until yesterday, their report was prepared in time for this publication and appears in another column. As a midwinter report, it is unusual in that it shows a larger cash reserve and increased deposits over its last published statement of October 21st, 1913, which was made at a time when business conditions are generally at high water mark in this section.

Library Club Passes Resolution.
 At the last meeting of the Ladies' Library Club a resolution was adopted favoring a Cargenie library and a committee was appointed to carry out the wishes of the club in that respect. This committee is to hold for a year unless the work is accomplished in less time and the members are empowered to act fully in the matter and report to the Club. The ladies named on the committee were: Dr. Elizabeth Ellis, chairman; Mrs. J. W. Biggs, Mrs. J. C. Foley, Miss Locher and Mrs. Julian Byrd.

Mrs. G. A. Rembold, president of the club, also desired a published statement to correct an error respecting the amount netted by the club at the recent benefit entertainment. The total receipts at the door amounted to $186.25 Sale of scores, $10, making a total of $196.25. The total expense of the production was $77.17, leaving a balance of $119.08.
 Following is a list of books recently added to the library making a total of 2042:
 The Iron Trail - Beach
 The White Linen Nurse, Abbott
 The Way Home - King
 Desert Gold - Grey
 Laddie - Porter

Valley View.
 (Communicated.)
 The Valley View Grange held a booster meeting at the Valley View school house Saturday, Jan. 10 1914. The Grange was called to order at 10:30 a m by Master George Cobb. Six new applications were voted on and accepted by a unanimous vote. Nine new members received the 1st and 4th degrees. After disposing of considerable business of great importance the master declared a recess for dinner.
 The ladies had prepared for this occasion in bountiful fashion and all present welcomed the abundant supply of good things set before them. The afternoon was taken up in the installing of the newly elected officers. This was an open meeting and many visitors were present to witness the installation. The following officers were installed by Past Master George Cobb and Thomas Rayercraft: C. C. Babbidge, Master; Henry Huntly, Overseer; Annie Babbidge, Lecturer; Mrs. Huntley, Treas.; George Rayercraft, Secy.; Thurlow Wilfong, Steward; Hazel Cobb, Lady Asst. Steward; Bessie Hoffeditz, Chaplain; Albert Rose, Inside Gatekeeper; Joe Willnecker, Outside Gatekeeper; Mary Rayercraft, Flora; Daisy Carter, Pomona; Birdie Shay, Ceers.
 Past Master George Cobb and Master C. C. Babbidge were the speakers of the day each delivered a very able address pertaining to the great work the Grange is carrying on in the interest of the farmers.
 Master Babbidge then called the Grange to order and appointed the following standing committees for the coming year: Executive Committee: Prof. Jokisch Guy Shaver, Arthur Whitney; Finance Committee: Thomas Rayercraft, George Cobb, Arthur Whitney. Relief committee:

Mrs. Guy Shaver, Will Cobb.
 The grange has taken in 17 new members at its last two meetings and we are informed there are more to follow at the next meeting in February. We believe Valley View has the largest and strongest Grange in Harney County.
 Mr. Chas. Van Zandt has purchased one of the cows from the Harney County National Bank herd.
 The Valley View Sunday School meets every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Everyone should attend these services and show their appreciation for the good work this organization is accomplishing.

We were very pleased to hear the Hon. County Court had granted us a voting precinct at their last session. We certainly appreciate their action in this matter.
 Mr. Lloyd Culp expects to have his new house completed in a few days. Lloyd should be very proud of his new home as it will be the first in this section when finished.
 Miss Emma Johnson the popular young school teacher of Valley View has been awarded first prize in the cake eating contest that took place at the school house last Saturday. Miss Johnson devoured three large layer cakes in just six minutes and thirty seconds by official time.

Funny pictures tonight.
 Mrs. B. F. Stillson is very ill at her home in this city.
 Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Everett Foren, this morning, a daughter.

You Could Benefit
 By having a Harney County National checking account. You would have a place to deposit cash, checks and drafts, where these funds would be better protected than in your own custody.
 You can withdraw these funds at will, or transfer them to others by means of your personal check.
 The benefits from your account cost you nothing, and you would enjoy the privileges that an acquaintance at this Bank holds for each of its patrons.

Annual Clearance Sale
 The long looked forward to event is now at hand. Two things have been uppermost in our mind in the planning of it. First, our inflexible rule that no winter goods are to be carried over, and second, and very important, that last year's sales records are to be put in the shade.
 A sweeping clearance carrying all our winter stocks before it and leaving behind a store ready to receive new, fresh merchandise—that's the object of it.
