For Sale—320 Acres of land on Cow Creek. Stock, hay, grain, and household goods. For particulars address owner

R. Drinkwater, Harney, Ore.

Nat Henney and Ben Roder were up from Sunset yesterday. They conferred with Mr. Hawley on the new railroad proposition from this place south and are enthusiastic supporters of the move.

W. H. Robins and N. P. Biddle were in from the Crow Camp section this week bringing a load of slaughtered hogs to the local packing plant. They had a fine lot of porkers that will help to supply the local demand for bacon, hams and lard.

The high wind storm experienced here the fore part of this week and including Saturday and Sunday was a general storm that swept the entire coast. In some places considerable damage was done. We have since experienced some real winter weather, the first of the season.

Among the pictures to be seen at Tonawama tonight and tomorrow night are some good ones, "Kathleen Mavourneen" is a strong drama, that has a good story and gripping interest. "The Mouse and the Lion" is another that will please. "Deedee's Blind Master" is a pathetic story in which a dog takes a prominent part. Some good comedy too. Usual prices.

There's going to be another masquerade ball at Tonawama on the evening of Feb. 13. The orchestra will furnish music for this dance and the usual prizes given for the best costumed and sustained characters. This is given by request of a number of our young people who want another masked ball during the winter. Mrs. Vera Welker will take orders for costumes and it would be well to make selections early as they must be ordered from a distance and it takes time for them to reach here.

We do job printing.
All kinds of snow glasses at Salisbury's.

H. J. Jokisch of the Harriman high school is in the city on business and to visit Mrs. Jokisch, who is teaching in the public school.

The excellence of the schools of Burns is the pride of every citizen. Good results are being accomplished this year in both the public school and high school.

R. J. McKinnon & Son have established a daily stage between Drewsey and Juntura. Connections made with the trains at Juntura and passengers given every comfort. Fare to Burns $6.

There doesn't seem any danger of any fresh people in this section as it appears about all the stages bring these days is salt. Last night's stage didn't have the evening Portland papers but did bring 1000 lbs. of salt.

The Clay Clemens sawmill is now at its new location and is prepared to fill any order with rough or dressed lumber, also fir lumber; buck teeth and any special order given prompt attention. 32.

Ernest Musick has assumed his duties in the pool hall, he having purchased an interest in it last week. He continues to help at the I. Schwartz store a part of the time until Mr. Schwartz gets competent assistance to take his place.

Well, water and sewer systems are still needed in Burns. What are we going to do about it, elect men who are conservative and favorable to such improvement and give them all encouragement, or shall we wait until we build the railroad? You know both will cost money.

With home cured meats, home made flour, a fine variety of vegetables from our own gardens, fruit and beef, fattened on our exceptional meadow grasses, alfalfa, peas and grain, Harney county should take a place among the producing sections of the West.

The Times-Herald has been trying for some time to get rid of Mrs. Wm. Hanley. Last issue stated she had gone to Portland for an indefinite visit, but she hasn't. She is one of our best friends and we have no desire to ship her out of the country, the reporter was misinformed about her going.

Austin Goodman is ready to grind grain and has a building in which it may be stored by farmers at any time. He will grind one day each week and farmers may store their grain any day and get it when convenient. He is prepared to take grain as pay for grinding at the market price. Special prices on large quantities. 44tf.

The children's masquerade at Tonawama last night was a great event for the little ones and they were out in numbers. Many were in costume and there were some well sustained characters represented. The little ones had a fine time for a couple of hours, the music being furnished by Mrs. Curtis Smith. The prizes were awarded to Regina Schwartz for the best costumed girl character, she represented a "Merry Widow." The best sustained girl character prize went to Marie Goff as a "scrub girl." Dolph Byrd, who was dressed as "Uncle Sam" was awarded the prize for the best costumed boy and Nick Robinson and Wesley Stiter were given the prize for the best sustained characters as "Coons."

Funny pictures tonight.

The way to accomplish results is to all get behind a thing and push—that's the secret of success.

Almost every street leading down from the school buildings are worn slick by the children coasting.

Well, Harney county farmers raised big crops last season and found a market for it. Now we'll just raise more crops this season and take the chances on getting rid of it.

Estrayed—One red and white muley cow branded 4 on right side came to my place in Drewsey about three weeks ago. Owner please come prove property, and pay charges and for this adv. F. J. Upton.

Three men were seriously, but not fatally, injured Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when an electric railroad speeder jumped the track on the Oregon & Eastern railroad, 18 miles west of Vale, near Little valley.

Jack Winans, the new proprietor of the Windsor Barber Shop adjoining the land office, is prepared to do first class work in his line and invites a share of the public trade. Satisfaction in every respect. 48tf.

According to a Portland paper the voters will have 13 constitutional amendments to vote on at the election this fall. This will be a job for the many new voters who take advantage of the franchise for the first time—the ladies.

The church people are going to start a vigorous campaign in Burns beginning with next week. The first meeting to be held by Rev. Cleighton will be at Tonawama Theatre on Sunday, Feb. 8, both morning and evening meetings.

Friends in Burns have received positive announcement from Gov. West that he is not going to be a candidate for reelection. From the tone of the newspapers it seem the Governor favors the candidacy of Dr. C. J. Smith.

The high school basket ball game at the public school gym last night resulted in a victory for the senior and junior team with the sophomores as their opponents, the score being 31 to 18. Owing to so much going on there was not a large crowd, but those who attended report a good game. It is likely there will be more games during the school term.

Died—At the home of Austin Goodman, in this city, Jan. 30, Andrew C. Skienes, aged 20 years and 21 days. The young man had been suffering from pneumonia and although two physicians had worked faithfully to save his life he passed away. He had been sick for over a week and it was hoped he would survive but was too weak after the hard struggle. Deceased was an industrious young man with good habits and was well liked by his many acquaintances. He had been working with the Goodman wood saw all fall and winter and contracted pneumonia from being exposed during the recent stormy, wet weather. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Skienes, three brothers and one sister, all of whom reside in this vicinity. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Beebe at the Goodman home. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of this community.

Tonawama tomorrow night.
Dry cleaning and pressing at the Burns Steam Laundry. 4tf.

Price Penick and wife are over from their Silver Creek home.

Remember the date of the agricultural short course, Feb. 16-21.

There's still room for more candidates for governor in this state.

The farmer who doesn't attend the short course next month is going to be the loser.

Good pictures tonight and tomorrow night at Tonawama, the usual programs and usual prices.

Finest alfalfa, timothy and red top hay baled may be had at the Goodman feed barn is south Burns.

Local growers should see to it that onions are not shipped in by parcel post next season. We must raise more onions.

From the amount of ice put up during the last few weeks the people of Burns should keep cool during the coming summer.

F. C. Sels, one of the pioneer residents of Grant county, died at his home there the fore part of the week. He was a prominent man and widely known.

Dr. Griffith was called to Emigrant Creek Thursday to see Mrs. Barnett. He reports the lady better and further states the snow is very deep in that section.

Annual Clearance Sale

The long looked forward to event is now at hand. Two things have been uppermost in our mind in the planning of it. First, our inflexible rule that no winter goods are to be carried over, and second, and very important, that last year's sales records are to be put in the shade.

A sweeping clearance carrying all our winter stocks before it and leaving behind a store ready to receive new, fresh merchandise---that's the object of it.

Don't Fail to Attend it
