ACCOUNTS INVITED

Go to church Sunday.
We do job printing.
All kinds of snow glasses at Salisbury's.
C. A. Sweek has returned from a visit to Portland and other outside points.
Pickard China and Libby cut glass make beautiful and useful wedding presents.
The Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday schools each gave a social for the young people last night.
Mrs. A. A. Cowing arrived home Friday of last week from California where she had been since last fall.
B. F. Siler has good pine and mahogany wood, delivered any place in town. Phone him at residence.
J. M. Hoffeditz was in the fore part of this week visiting his wife and daughter and attending to some business.
Some people are missing some mighty fine picture program at Tonawama, especially the mid-week programs, as they are features worth while.
Ira Mahon and wife were in from their Cow Creek home yesterday on a visit to relatives and friends and attending to some business.

The Clay Clemens sawmill is now at its new location and is prepared to fill any order with rough or dressed lumber, also fir lumber; buck teeth and any special order given prompt attention.
Expressions in the Portland papers would indicate that we are to have one regional bank in the northwest under the new currency system at present and it will be located at San Francisco, but Portland will no doubt have a branch.
The ground hog saw his shadow on Monday and now those who have faith in the little fellow will portion out the forage to the stock in accordance. We don't want any spring weather until the right season of year in this country and therefore Mr. Ground Hog will always see his shadow if we have our way about it.
The democratic administration has so successfully redeemed the pledges it made to the people in the last national campaign that even the standpat republicans are forced to reply, when asked what they think of President Wilson: "I am afraid he is going to make good."—Lakeview Herald.
Austin Goodman is ready to grind grain and has a building in which it may be stored by farmers at any time. He will grind one day each week and farmers may store their grain any day and get it when convenient. He is prepared to take grain as pay for grinding at the market price. Special prices on large quantities.
The Times-Herald calls attention to its advertising columns. Readers do not get all there is in a paper without they read the ads. Some new news in the ads this week. Look them over.
A. K. Richardson is going to get rid of shoes; N. Brown & Sons announce their spring opening in a short time; I. Schwartz says he can save you money and the Harney County National Bank always has something new in its space.

Mrs. B. Buchele, has received the insurance on a policy held by her late husband in the A. O. U. W. This mutual insurance order has been a great boon to thousands of widows and orphans and it is certainly a deserving order. Mrs. Buchele informs The Times-Herald she expects to go to the Island Ranch of the P. L. S. Co., next week where she will be the cook. Her son is working on the ranch and it will be a very convenient and pleasant arrangement. Her daughter, Miss Emma, expects to go to Portland in the near future.

Mrs. Wm. Hanley went out by way of Bend Tuesday morning to join Mr. Hanley for a short time. She made the trip out with Jay Salzman and stated to The Times-Herald man that she would return the 14th or 15th with Mr. Hanley and the agricultural instructors, as she desires to attend the short course.
Mrs. D. N. Catterson was up from her home at Lawen the first of this week accompanied by her sons Will and Ralph. They were here on probate court matters in connection with the estate of the late D. N. Catterson. Mrs. Catterson is one of the highly respected pioneer women of this section who continue active in her advanced age. She was the guest of old time friends during her stay in Burns.
Tom Cleveland was in this week from the Calamity country for a feed grinder that he had shipped up to this point. Tom raises the Banner hogs of Central Oregon, and last fall marketed the largest hog that was ever hauled into Burns. We forget the weight of that porker, but it was the biggest we ever heard of. He has a great many hogs this year and will grind up his grain and fatten them on the ranch. This is the way to make ranching pay in this part of the state.—Juntura Times.

The masked ball advertised for Feb. 13 is going to be given. The prizes will be put on exhibition next week and with the orchestra to furnish the music it will be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.
I have for sale at a decided bargain a complete threshing rig in good order. It consists of a 16 horse Russell engine and a 30 inch thresher. Engine has been repaired and painted and is ready for work. Terms can be given if desired. For full information address C. V. F., Care Times-Herald, Burns, Oregon.

Jack Winans, the new proprietor of the Windsor Barber Shop adjoining the land office, is prepared to do first class work in his line and invites a share of the public trade. Satisfaction in every respect.
Mrs. E. S. Sweek, the child's tailor. Call and examine my garments, styles and materials, I will take your child's measure for made to order suits, dresses, aprons, rompers and bloomers, from 2 to 7 year sizes.
Deputy Sheriff Terrill received a telegram from Sheriff Richardson Wednesday morning announcing that he had captured Ernest Esmond, a man wanted in this county on a charge of horse stealing. He is expected home tomorrow or next day.
Hon. A. W. Gowan took his departure yesterday morning by way of Prairie City for Portland and other outside points. He will stop in Pendleton on his way down and visit his daughter, Mrs. W. C. McKinney, for a short time. Senator Gowan will be absent some little time.
C. A. Haines came up from Narrows Monday and took his departure Tuesday morning by way of Prairie City for Hot Lake where he will spend some time taking treatment for rheumatism. He will likely extend his trip to Portland before returning, going down to visit his daughter who is attending school in that city.
The Monday morning exercises inaugurated in the public school have become quite popular and very instructive. Last Monday morning the third grade pupils told interesting stories of the Cliff Dwellers and also rendered a song that was both patriotic and pleasing. Quite a number of parents and visitors attended and it is safe to say that the public school will have many visitors during the balance of the term on Monday mornings.

Tonawama tomorrow night.
Dry cleaning and pressing at the Burns Steam Laundry. 4tf.
Remember the date of the agricultural short course, Feb. 16-21.
Revival.
Next Friday evening Feb. 13th the evangelists and singers will be here to join Rey Crighton in a two weeks religious campaign. Revs. Lewis and Mathews are live wire men. They are consecrated and earnest preachers of the gospel. They have had great success among the churches. This is an opportunity such as Burns has never before enjoyed. Let everybody come out and take part in this forward movement. Services in Tonawama Hall, Feb. 8th to 12th inclusive. Further announcements will be made.
