Customers and others desiring us to settle their taxes will please send us Tax Collector's statement of the amount due together with instructions for payment of the same.—FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS, OREGON.

The Clay Clemens sawmill is now at its new location and is prepared to fill any order with rough or dressed lumber, also fir lumber; buck teeth and any special order given prompt attention. 32.

The Harney County National Bank of Burns, is distributing free to the farmers of the County Minnesota 23 seed corn, a variety suitable for this section and adapted for dry farming. The seed corn was procured from C. L. Smith, Agriculturist of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Co.

Some of the members of the Rod and Gun Club were at the traps Sunday afternoon for a shoot. The scores were not very high as the boys are out of practice. It is the intention to move the traps to the fair grounds where a permanent place will be fixed for the traps and necessary pits and proper platforms will be constructed for shooting.

A. B. Whitney and wife are home from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. John Kessler, over in Idaho. While the Kesslers are nicely situated with a fine farm home Mrs. Whitney told the manager of this great religious weekly that she was glad to be back in Harney Valley and has no regrets that her home is here. Mr. and Mrs. Kessler are enjoying good health and are prospering in their new home which is on the Snake River under the Twin Falls irrigation project.

Principal Sutton of the public school handed this office copies of the Springfield, Lane county, papers in which is the announcement of Mel Fenwick as a candidate for representative. Mel stands on a good platform, as he most generally did while a resident of this county, but he didn't seem to stand so well with the voters in final results. No doubt if Mel makes an active campaign in his district and will enlighten the people for instance on the subject of "perkapasha" he'll pretty near win.

Married—Wednesday evening, March 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Schwartz in this city, Mr. Ernest Musick and Miss Gertrude Gerstel, City Recorder Van Winkle performing the ceremony. This was one of the most complete surprises that has ever been pulled off on friends in this city as their most intimate friends did not know the marriage was to take place that evening. Both are very popular young people who have resided here for several years. The bride has been bookkeeper in the I. Schwartz store for some time and Mr. Musick was also employed there for some time resigning his position only last month to associate himself with Walter Sullivan in the pool hall. They left immediately after the ceremony for Alex Hanley's country home where they have been since but they will return to Burns tomorrow evening. Mrs. Musick expects to resume her position in the Schwartz store for the present at least and they will be domiciled in the Schwartz home for the time being. The Times-Herald joins the many friends in extending best wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

Mrs. Ollie Darsey, who recently took charge of the Oregon Hotel, reports trade good at her popular eating place. She is of pioneer Harney county family and is well known to all the old time residents who are sure of a hearty welcome at her hotel.

The present spring weather is helping to dry up the roads but it is rather a slow process, as the melting snow has saturated the soil and it is going to take some time before the roads will be settled sufficiently to permit travel in a pleasant way or with any certainty as to when one will reach his destination.

Claud Smyth met with a very painful accident at the Allen Jones home last Saturday. He was assisting in driving some hogs and while using a heavy whip the lash came back striking him in the eye with great force. A physician was called immediately and for a time it was feared the sight was gone, but his doctor states he is much better and he is confident he will save the eye. He is being cared for at the French hotel.

The high water has made it necessary for the light plant to start its gasoline engine and as yet it hasn't been entirely adjusted, therefore the service is not as sure as in the past. Manager Dwyer wishes to announce to patrons that if one "blink" is given the lights they may know the interval is for changing from gas power to water, but if the usual three "blink" signal is given they had better look for a candle as it might be some little time before the electric lights come on again.

WOMEN'S ACCOUNTS
We believe many women do not patronize banks because they do not understand how banking is transacted and that a bank is principally a place for men.
As a matter of fact a woman needs the services of a bank just as much as a man. This bank has among its customers a large number of women who thoroughly appreciate its efforts to assist them in the transaction of their banking business, and no woman need hesitate to avail herself of our facilities.
We are always pleased to explain the few simple matters regarding the proper keeping of a bank account.
