The Times-Herald calls the attention of its readers to some changes in ads this week. Several local firms have seasonable goods now on display and one should look over the advertisements each week to get all there is in the paper.

Mrs. H. B. Mace again occupies her home in Burns after a year on the ranches. She moved in this week, the Harrisons, who had occupied the residence giving up possession Monday. Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Murray are stopping at the Holland home for the present but will leave about the first of next month for Drewsey where Dr. Harrison is now located.

Frederico Pico, a Mexican, who was lost the fore part of last December in the Steens Mountain section while returning from Andrews, was frozen to death. His body was found recently frozen, with the coat, hat and shoes missing. He was riding a horse belonging to Chino Berdugo but he either got off the animal or fell, as it was thought he was intoxicated, and wandered away. Justice Solomon of Catlow held an inquest and the body was removed to Andrews for burial.

The ranch house on what is known as the Mace place on the island belonging to the P. L. S. Co., was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday night with all its contents. The fire was discovered in the roof about six o'clock and it seems the men were out at work, therefore it took some time to reach the house and the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to get it out. All the new furniture was burned. The new furniture was burned. The new furniture was burned.

W. H. Robins was in from his Crow Camp home during the week and has finally consented to be a candidate for commissioner on the republican ticket at the primaries. Mr. Robins is considered one of the substantial business men of this county and a careful business man of good judgment. He would make a conscientious officer should he be elected.

The Spokane Daily Chronicle of March 20 contains a picture of Clyde Wittenhiller and an account of his having won the championship gold medal at the Blair Business College of that place last week. The medal is awarded annually for the typewriting speed contest and Clyde averaged 50 words net a minute for 30 minutes. He was also presented with his diploma from the short hand department of the same institution. Clyde has taken up his duties as stenographer in his father's office in this city, having arrived Sunday from Spokane.

J. L. Gault of the First National Bank of this city was agreeably surprised last Saturday afternoon when Earl Conser, cashier of the First National Bank of Paisley, dropped in to see him. Mr. Conser is a brother to Mrs. Gault and had not informed any one of his intended visit, in fact he did not know he was coming until a few minutes before he started. Mr. Conser states that his section is on the eve of promising development and will be a very prosperous community when the irrigation project is completed and the land cultivated as it is possible.

Frank Johnson, representative of the Oregon & Western Colonization Co., arrived here Sunday from Prineville to meet a representative of a colonization concern who had been sent to this section to look at land. He was accompanied over by his wife, also Mrs. Culp, who comes to spend the summer with relatives, Mrs. M. R. Biggs, who resided here for many years and is well acquainted with many old time residents of this place. Mrs. Biggs was formerly Laura Stancliff and spent a most enjoyable time with her many old time friends while here. Clyde Wittenhiller came over with the family and has again taken up his duties in his father's office after a short stay in Spokane.

Mrs. Biggs returned trip to Prineville.
