The city ordinance governing the enclosure of chickens should be observed, otherwise your chickens may get arrested. April 1 is the time fixed to keep chickens from running at large.

Our esteemed fellow citizen, William Hanley, has announced his candidacy for United States Senator on the progressive ticket. In accepting the invitation to become the candidate of that party Mr. Hanley doesn't commit himself unqualifiedly to all the planks of that party, in fact he appears to be a man without a party.

Austin Goodman is ready to grind grain and has a building in which it may be stored by farmers at any time. He will grind one day each week and farmers may store their grain any day and get it when convenient. He is prepared to take grain as pay for grinding at the market price. Special prices on large quantities. 44tf.

G. Skeletz, who was here last year and made a location in the Catlow Valley, returned this week from Spokane accompanied by several prospective settlers; in fact this party is the advance guard of a large colony of Germans, Poles, Italians and other foreign birth people. There were ten in the party that arrived with Mr. Skeletz and all will look over the Catlow section before locating.

Clarence Cary and wife were in from their Crane Creek home a few days this week guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Terrill.

The Clay Clemens sawmill is now at its new location and is prepared to fill any order with rough or dressed lumber, also fir lumber; buck teeth and any special order given prompt attention. 32.

Word was received this week that J. E. Stoy, who formerly lived here and later on Crane Creek near Harriman, died over in Idaho last week. His wife and two sons reside in this county.

A telegram from Pendleton was received Wednesday morning announcing to C. F. McKinney and wife that a son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKinney on March 31. Many friends here extend congratulations.

To the Ladies—You are cordially invited to call and see the new styles and beautiful materials for tailor made suits, made to your measure and a perfect fit guaranteed, highest class workmanship. Clingans Millinery Parlors, Emmaline Hale, Agent.

Capt. Louey and several more of the Piute tribe, who have been at Fort Bidwell for some time, have returned and will remain here for the summer. Capt. Louey says the Indians are not entirely satisfied with the school at Bidwell and they hope to get an Indian school established in Burns.

Archie McGowan and his assistants are over at Juntura where two car loads of Ford cars have been received for distribution in this territory which is represented by the Burns Garage. Mr. McGowan has disposed of several cars in the Drewsey country and will bring the remainder of the shipment to Burns.

Married—In this city on Monday, March 30, 1914, at the residence of the Catholic church, Mr. William J. Grant and Miss Lizzie Patjens, Rev. Father Pius officiating. Both are residents of the Princeton section where they will make their home. The Times-Herald extends congratulations. 14tf.

Geo. P. Greenman and wife and Mr. Greenman's two brothers arrived here Wednesday on their way to Catlow Valley where they are going to make their home. Mr. Greenman entered a home-stead over there last year and has brought his brothers in to also take land. They came by team from Bend.

The Times-Herald has not had it from J. C. Foley, but friends have said he is willing to become a candidate for the office of county treasurer. Mr. Foley is one of the pioneer men of Harney county and one of the most capable men in this whole country. He would make an ideal officer and with the added responsibility and work of tax collector now placed upon the treasurer it requires a competent man. This Mr. Foley is in every respect. Members of his party are pleased to learn he has consented to run and they are confident he will be elected.

J. S. Geer has traded his farm property near this city for a hardware and furniture store in Washougal, Wash., and has assumed the management. Henry Geer has gone down to look after the business while his father returns here with the man with whom he traded to close business in this section. Mr. Geer was a business man of this city for many years and the family have many friends here who regret their departure, but the change was made for the benefit of the health of members of the family. We hope they will succeed in their new home.

I. SCHWARTZ - General Merchandise - Masonic Building, - Burns, Oregon

John M. Thompson of the real estate firm of Thompson & Deegan, arrived home the fore part of this week in a new seven-passenger auto purchased for the use of the firm. He also secured some nice furniture for the office of the firm in the Tonawama building and it has been received and installed.

Rev. Father Pius, pastor of the local Catholic church, informs us he is expecting a handsome piece of statuary from St. Louis to arrive here to be in its place in the Catholic church by Good Friday. It is the Crucifixion group. Father Pius desires that we announce the morning services at the church at 10 o'clock in the future.

The usual Easter sale by the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will be held at the I. Schwartz store on next Saturday afternoon, April 11. Beautiful cut flowers, potted plants, home made candy, cakes, ice cream, etc., will be on sale. These sales have been an annual event for several years and the ladies always dispose of all their goods in remarkably short time. Their candies and cakes being especially sought. The cut flowers should come through in better shape than in the past if the weather remains mild.

It is reported that F. C. Croxton died of McDermitt a few days ago. He was in poor health and was on his way to California for medical treatment. He had resided in the vicinity of Harriman for several years and his sister, Miss Mary, made her home with him. Mr. Croxton worked at the fair grounds for a time with some of J. W. Biggs' standard bred horses and was well known and highly respected by many in this city.

Married—In this city, Tuesday, March 31, 1914, James H. Henderson and Mrs. Rose Kern, Justice Patterson officiating. The contracting parties are residents of the Narrows section and are well known, the bride being a member of a pioneer family. The Times-Herald wishes them a prosperous and happy life.
