J. S. Burres, the well known stock buyer of Condon, is here on business. He may buy considerable stock in this vicinity in the immediate future.

Eggs were quoted at 12 1/2 cents a dozen this week, the lowest the writer has ever known them to be in this section. It is a good time to "salt" some down for the winter months when they are "soaring."

The Clay Clemens sawmill is now at its new location and is prepared to fill any order with rough or dressed lumber, also fir lumber; buck teeth and any special order given prompt attention. 32.

J. W. Wills, of Center, Colorado, is here looking over the country with a view of locating and engaging in farming. Mr. Wills states he has been traveling quite extensively of late looking for a suitable location and hopes to find this section suitable.

Mrs. Dalton, wife of the Asst. Cashier of the Harney County National Bank, visited this week with her relatives Mr. and Mrs. Byrd. She was mildly surprised at the town, but thought it to close to Burns to amount to very much, which seems to be the general opinion of these Burns-for-ever bunch of boosters and natives. Well they may be right.—Juntura Times.

Died—Monday at the Cummins hospital in this city, Joseph Courtes, aged 83 years. He was an old time resident and had been ill for some time. He had no relatives in this section.

Mrs. Ella Martin was called to Drewsey during the week on account of the illness of her mother. Her sister, Mrs. L. N. Stallard, who also lives in that vicinity, was quite painfully hurt last week in a run away, sustaining several broken ribs.

Austin Goodman is ready to grind grain and has a building in which it may be stored by farmers at any time. He will grind one day each week and farmers may store their grain any day and get it when convenient. He is prepared to take grain as pay for grinding at the market price. Special prices on large quantities. 44tf.

The beautiful and inspiring picture production, "The Star of Bethlehem," will be produced at Tonawama next Wednesday night. This wonderful Bible story is one of the finest ever pictured and is sure to be interesting to those who attend. The pictures are in three reels and an additional split reel of comedy will also be on the program. The Bonita Photo Play Co., will show it on that evening. Tonawama patrons will remember these people, Mr. and Mrs. Beckley, who played the house for a couple of nights last season.

I. S. Geer is here looking after his business affairs and getting things in shape that he may return to his business recently traded for in Washugai, Wash. Mr. Geer traded his homestead property for a furniture and hardware store in that place and says while he hasn't a big business he feels the climate will agree with the health of Mrs. Geer and that was the reason for the change. He retains a good lot of farm property in this vicinity as well as his stock and he is now arranging to lease the land and also the cattle. He contemplates selling some of his horses and what is left will take back with him to market down at his new home.

Pictures tomorrow night.

R. J. McKinnon & Son have established a daily stage between Drewsey and Juntura. Connections made with the trains at Juntura and passengers given every comfort. Fare to Burns $6.

Mesdames H. C. Levens and Tom Allen expect to leave next Wednesday for Portland where the former will likely spend the summer and Mrs. Allen will remain until after the Rose Festival and return home with her son Fred who is in school in that city.

No Trespassing—All persons are forbidden trespassing upon my premises known as the Miller Springs place west of Burns. No turning in or driving of stock through the place without permission. Trespassers will be prosecuted. W. E. Huston.

The Easter egg hunt given by the Mothers' Club last week was a very pleasant affair thoroughly enjoyed by the little ones who worked hard to find the eggs. All the prize eggs but one were found. The egg hunt was conducted back of the Presbyterian church as the play grounds were covered with water.

The stone is being gotten out and the necessary material being assembled for the packing plant to be erected by the Burns Flour Milling Co. Those in charge state the building will be put up as rapidly as any structure ever erected in this section. The materials from the outside necessary to its completion are arriving.

Mrs. A. W. Gowan and her daughter, Mrs. McCoy, entertained a number of their lady friends at the home of the former Thursday afternoon at Five Hundred. It is reported as a very enjoyable party. The prizes for highest scores were awarded Mrs. Rohn, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Purington and Mrs. Gault; the consolation going to Mrs. Faulkner. Ice cream and cake were served following the hands.

Roy Van Winkle of the Harney County Abstract Co., has purchased the A. C. Welcome residence. Mr. Welcome is undecided just what he will do for a home at present. He has a nice acreage tract down toward the river but as it is rather "damp" just now and with the spring freshet allowed to run off as it has in the past, it will continue to be in the same condition each spring, he hasn't fully made up his mind whether to build down there or secure another location on higher ground.

Dr. J. W. Geary returned Thursday evening from Curry county where he went to look after the estate of Frank Rasnick who was drowned there recently. Dr. Geary met Rev. A. J. Irwin and his son Millard down there. It seems Mr. Rasnick was going to meet them at the time he met his death. Mr. Irwin is going to spend the summer in that section looking around, fish and have a rest from his church work. His son Millard desires a farm in that section and when they find a suitable place Mrs. Irwin and Philip will come on from Arizona and they will make their home on the coast. Mr. Irwin expects to take up his church work again this fall.
