Local News.

David Craddock and wife were down from Silvies Monday.

Order your Binding twine now. We will have it here when needed. N. Brown & Sons, Agents.

The C. T. Miller family came in from the ranch to spend the celebration period.

L. I. Moon, an automobile supply man of Boise, was here this week in the interest of his business.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Mrs. C. T. Cary has been visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Byron Terrill, during this week.

E. E. Purington has about 100 cords of slab wood at the mill that he would be glad to give to the farmers for thrashing time. It makes good fuel and gets up steam quick.

Clarence Lucky and wife and son Norman are here from Eugene, making the trip over the mountains in their taxicab. They are visiting at the home of Mrs. Ione Whiting.

T. C. Albritton has moved his headquarters to Albritton. He had been occupying rooms on the second floor of The Times-Herald building, therefore there is a nice vacant suite for lease.

Tom Allen was in from the P Ranch Sunday and took Mr. Stirling out in his car for a tour of the several ranches, returning Wednesday. Tom has gone back to the P Ranch to spend the 4th in the shade. He's too ornery to fish.

Another school election is called for July 9 at 2 o'clock for the purpose of electing a clerk, the candidate elected at the regular annual meeting not being qualified. Among those suggested for the place are J. E. Loggan, M. J. Gould and Chester Dalton.

J. E. Rounseville and wife came up from their home in the Denio section early this week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bathrick, a sister to Mrs. Rounseville, who had been visiting them and was on her way to her home in Spokane. Mr. Rounseville reports that section prosperous with fine prospects for crops.

TRIED AND PROVEN

For almost twelve years our institution has stood the exacting test of public approval. During this time it has always protected the interests of its patrons, regardless of local or general financial conditions. The volume of business transacted through our institution, and the number of our patrons, continues to grow—conclusive evidence that our efficient service is appreciated and that our conservative policy is approved by the banking public.

Mrs. Cortes Elliott is here from Portland on a visit.

Archie McGowan and Bill Gould made a trip to Bear Valley Monday.

Order your Binding twine now. We will have it here when needed. N. Brown & Sons, Agents.

Claude Smyth was in from his Happy Valley home Thursday on business.

There are numerous celebrations all over the country today, hence the crowds are confined to each community. That's a good way to spend the 4th, right at home with home people.

C. B. McConnell, H. A. Weir and M. V. Dodge went over to Silver Creek Tuesday, returning last evening. They were on pleasure and also to look after some business connected with the irrigation project.

The J. L. Lowe sawmill, formerly the Bunyard mill, above Harney, has a complete stock of rough and dressed lumber, shingles moulding, etc. Good road. Call by phone for rush orders.—J. L. Lowe. 27tf

B. P. Bennett, the popular old war veteran, returned Tuesday from his visit to Glenwood Spring, Colorado. He is looking well and says he is glad to be back among his many friends in Burns. Mr. Bennett states he enjoyed the trip very much that the scenery around the springs where he had been staying was magnificent.

Tonawama tonight.

We do job printing.

Will Weber was in town for a few days this week.

Dry cleaning and pressing at the Burns Steam Laundry. 4tf.
Wanted—A two-wheel cart or a second hand saddle—Call the Burns Steam Laundry.

Miss Eldora Hall arrived home last Saturday evening from Corvallis where she had been attending school during the past year.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

The Gault family and Clyde Wittenhiller went out to Valley View Wednesday evening and brought Miss Florence Hoffeditz in to spend the celebration period.

Albert Swain, who has been employed at the Lawen Mercantile Co. store for the past month, came up Wednesday to remain until after the celebration.

James Richardson returned home Sunday from outside points. He came in by way of Juntura, bringing in one of the new Ford cars that Archie McGowan recently shipped for sale to Harney county customers.

L. Woldenberg was in Thursday checking up his affairs in winding up his stage business. Mr. Knight, the new contractor, was also here looking after the preliminaries in starting his line of stages.

Mrs. Wm. Walker and Mrs. Howard VanValkenburg, who had been visiting at the family home on Silver Creek for a short time, took their departure Monday for their homes, the former at Ontario, the latter at John day. They went out in Mr. Brent's auto.

Dr. C. C. Babbidge was in from Valley View Wednesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson and her daughter Ruth and Miss Roberta Hibbard. Dr. Babbidge said he did not get his wire in time to fence out the rabbits this season and as a consequence they have harvested his alfalfa. However, he will be prepared for them before another crop is ready.

Died—Monday, Mrs. Martell, an aged lady who has recently come to this section and entered a homestead over in the Warm Springs section. The cause of her death was heart disease. She had been suffering for some time and her son had started to Burns with her for medical attendance but she died on the road in. The funeral was held Tuesday.

James Johnson was over from his Andetson Valley home Thursday. He recently came back from Juntura where he was interested in the shearing plant and reports they had a good run. Mr. Johnson says the rabbits have caused considerable damage in his neighborhood, but by systematic poisoning he is sure they can be exterminated, as J. F. Mahon had made a success of this method last year, clearing his entire neighborhood of rabbits at a small cost.

Tonawama tomorrow night. Ferd Tipton was in town Wednesday.

Old clothes made like new phone 381.

D. A. Brakeman was up from Waverly Wednesday.

Few choice Red Polled milk cows for sale—Chas. Wilson. 25

Arthur Thompson and his wife were over from Harney the other day.

Miss Julia McKenzie was in the city this week visiting relatives and friends.

Call 381 when you want your clothes cleaned, pressed and repaired.

Sidney Comegys, the Diamond hotel man, was in Wednesday on business before the county court.

Geo. Buchanan and wife were in from their home Thursday having some dental work done.

Henderson Elliott was confined to his home a portion of this week from illness but is reported better.

Mrs. Millar announces that all her millinery goods are reduced at this time. See them at the Schwartz store.

Mrs. Homer Bringle was operated on by Drs. Griffith and Carl at the hospital this week. She is recovering quite satisfactorily.

Tonawama has gone to additional expense in securing the Portland Rose festival pictures to show to its patrons tonight.

Rev. Dr. Benson will be here tomorrow and therefore there will be preaching services in the Presbyterian church both morning and evening.

Dr. Geo. Carl returned home Monday from a trip to Portland where he visited his mother for a short time and also his wife before she took her departure for the east on a visit.

Frank Johnson and family went out to Juntura yesterday afternoon. They will take the train this morning for Ontario where they go to look at a tract of land they own there.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett came home with the Cheney family on their return from Washington last week and will spend the summer here with her children. She is the mother of Mrs. Simon Lewis, Mrs. T. J. Shields, Mrs. R. J. Williams, Mrs. P. M. Cheney and J. T. Garrett, all of this county. Mrs. Garrett is growing old in years but is still a young "old lady". She expects to accompany the Cheneys to Arizona this fall.

Mesdames Ted and Bailey Hayes, of Burns, formerly Belle and Edith Claypool, are visiting with their parents, Rube and Mrs. Claypool, at their ranch on Cottonwood. Rube was an old timer in the Prineville country, and has been in the Malheur country almost long enough now to be counted as an old timer, but he is one of those happy old cusses that does not know how to grow old, and he is younger now than he used to be.—Vale Enterprise.

Mrs. James Bunyard underwent an operation at the Cummins hospital Monday. Dr. Griffith, assisted by Dr. Carl performing it. The patient is reported doing well.

W. B. Johnson and son Albert were over from their Silver creek homes during the week, making the trip in the former's new Cadillac car. Bill refused to "steer the ternal thing" in town and Albert was at the wheel and he tried to make a first class funeral by running over the manager of this great religious weekly.

We are desirous that our friends and the general public understand that we are not moving away from Burns, nor have we quit practice here, but we take this means of thanking you one and all, who have placed confidence in us, and for the patronage we have had the past year. In starting out on another year's practice, we shall be glad to serve you, should you need a doctor, and we shall certainly appreciate it when anyone sees fit to "say a good word for us".
