Harry Witter and the Savage family desire to express their sincere thanks to the many friends and lodge members for their kindness and sympathy during the recent bereavement.
 Sidney Comegys has been over from Diamond during the week. He seems little the worse of his recent experience when he was slashed with a knife by a drunk man on the night of July 3.

Leon Johnson, brother to Chas. and Mrs. Austin Goodman, arrived here the latter part of last week from his home in Washington to spend a portion of his vacation with relatives and friends in this section.

School Supt. Hamilton and wife are back from a trip to Salem, where Mr. Hamilton acted as one of the state examining board and also attended the convention of school superintendents of the state. They came back by way of Enterprise and visited Mr. Hamilton's parents and brothers.
 Geo. M. Bailey, connected with the Northwest Townsite Co. of Philadelphia, passed through this city early in the week en route to Paisley accompanied by his daughter and a young lady friend of the family. The party was accompanied over to Paisley by Mrs. J. L. Gault and her son Wellington, C. M. Faulkner taking them over. Mrs. Gault remaining for a short visit with her brother and wife.
 Capt. A. W. Gowan called at this office yesterday afternoon and suggested that the three candidates for U. S. Senator be invited to attend the big "Round-up" scheduled at the Experiment Station for the farmers on the 8th of next month. Mr. Gowan stated that R. A. Booth, the republican candidate wished to visit Harney county in the interest of his candidacy and thought that would be a good time. Mr. Hanley belongs here and will no doubt be present but Senator Chamberlain is at his post of duty at Washington and it is not likely he will be able to come. However the voters of Harney county will have an opportunity to see Senator Chamberlain at some time during the campaign as he will return to his home as soon as he can leave Washington and he has promised personal friends he will visit Harney county.

Chas. Johnson and wife and Fred Williams and wife and little son made up a party to go camping Wednesday morning. Mr. Johnson was recalled to town the same afternoon on account of the death of his nephew, Raymond McHargue.

P. S. Weittenhiller arrived home last week from outside points. He was accompanied in by his daughter Miss Clara, and his little son Leland, who will spend the summer here. Miss Weittenhiller, who has been in poor health and recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is improving in health and her many friends are pleased to note the improvement.

Chas. T. Lillard, at one time a resident of this county but now of Portland, a Mr. Logan and Carroll Cecil blew into town Thursday afternoon for a short time. Chas. has been over in Crook county looking after some business interest and came over to say "hello" to his many old time friends in this city. The party stayed but a short time returning to Mr. Cecil's Silver creek home the same evening.

Hosen Latham was kicked by a mule at one of the P. L. S. Co. hay camps last Tuesday and is now at the Cummins hospital in a very serious condition. The animal was fighting flies and did not kick at Mr. Latham but he struck him in the groin and at first it was not considered of any consequence. Later it was so painful he came in to consult a physician. Dr. Geary states the young man in a bad shape. He is a recent arrival in this section being a cousin of R. Heck. Later: The young man died at noon while physicians were operating in the hope of saving his life.

C. E. Kenyon and J. D. Billingsley accompanied by their families passed through this city the first of this week en route to the coast where they will remain until the first of September. They were making the journey in their cars and prepared to camp anywhere. Chas. had a mishap on Stinkin Water Mountain, breaking his axle, which delayed the party but they were a happy bunch and took things as they come. They may go by Crater lake and on to Coos Bay.

The wife and daughter of A. E. Murphy arrived at their Iron Mountain home the latter part of last week from Seattle and will spend the summer there. Mr. Murphy went out to meet them and was on the train that was recently held up by robbers in the Blue Mountains near the old Mechem station in which a deputy sheriff of Morrow county killed the leader of the gang and was himself shot. Mr. Murphy witnessed this and the papers credited him with having taken a hand in it but Mr. Murphy denies it, giving all the credit to the deputy sheriff.

Dalton Gibbs was kicked by a horse Thursday afternoon at the upper Lampshire place upon his return from searching for the little Patterson child. The hoofs of the animal struck him on the back right over the kidney and he had to ride horseback over 12 miles before he could consult a physician. Dr. Carl made an examination and thought at first it was possibly not bad but yesterday Mr. Gibbs had a hemorrhage and had to be taken to the Cummins hospital. He is in rather a serious condition but his physician hopes he will come through without too serious a time.
